Demos May Pass GOP's Rights Plan

Gives Federal Judge Limited Power To Act In Vote Right Cases

WASHINGTON (AP)—Speaker Rayburn (D-Tex.) said today House Democrats are willing to consider an agreement on the deadlocked civil rights bill based on a new GOP compromise proposal or some other one.

Rayburn said he still hopes for a right-to-vote bill at this session of Congress, but he avoided any commitment to accept a compromise.

The plan put forward yesterday by Republican House Leader Martin of Massachusetts with President Eisenhower's approval was coolly received at first by Democrats.

But Rayburn told a news conference today that he and "my colleagues and those interested in this matter are going to give it serious consideration."

Not In Toto

"That doesn't mean we are going to accept it in toto or say what parts we might accept," he continued. He said there has not yet been time for discussions leading to any firm decision "about this compromise or another."

He declined to spell out what he might mean by "another."

Republican leaders were said to be inclined to revise their proposal somewhat in an effort to gain Democratic support.

With neither Democratic nor Republican leaders holding to an absolute no-yield stand, hopes rose for a possible quick agreement on the measure which has been stalemated in the House Rules Committee since Senate passage Aug. 7.

Hopes For Bill

Rayburn said "I hope there'll be a right-to-vote bill this session of Congress. I certainly do. I want one at this session of Congress."

However, Rayburn said he had not heard of any plans for a meeting of the Rules Committee, whose chairman, Howard W. Smith (D-Va.), is adamantly opposed to passage of any civil rights bill.

The GOP proposal would give federal judges limited powers to punish for criminal contempt in voting rights cases, without a jury trial.

House Republican Leader Martin of Massachusetts unveiled the Republican plan yesterday after President Eisenhower had told newsmen it was coming. Eisenhower endorsed it.

The GOP proposal would give judges sole discretion to decide whether there should be a jury trial in voting rights cases in which a person is accused of criminal contempt for violating a court injunction.

If the judge tried the case without a jury, he could impose a penalty no stronger than 90 days in jail and a $300 fine. In the event he decided there should be a jury trial the defendant—if convicted—might be imprisoned for as long as six months and fined up to $1,000.

The Democratic leaders, after studying this proposal, were understood to object to it, in part because they feel it would involve prejudgment by a judge of a possible penalty.

Court-Martial Airs Charges

FT. SILL, Okla. (AP)—Lt. Col. Walter P. Berger, 41, faced a general court-martial today on charges of negligent homicide and dereliction of duty in the firing range deaths of four infantrymen.

Berger, an artillery officer with 16 years service, is from Philadelphia. His wife and two daughters, 7 and 5, live with him at Ft. Sill.

Berger was second in command during a public demonstration of artillery support for an infantry assault June 22. The demonstration ended tragically when mortar shells landed in the midst of a 70-man platoon. Four enlisted men were killed and 13 others were wounded.

An investigating board lodged five charges against Berger and four counts of negligent homicide against Lt. Rosser L. Moody of Toano, Va.

20 U. S. Newsmen Will Get Red China Travel Permit

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Eisenhower administration was reported today to announce soon that about 20 American newsmen will be permitted to go to Red China on a six-month trial basis.

The announcement, expected in the next day or so, would end an eight-year blackout on eyewitness news stories written by American reporters operating on the China mainland—provided the Communists still are willing to let them in.

Secretary of State Dulles has worked out a plan after polling newspaper, radio and television executives. This survey produced a list of news agencies which want to station correspondents permanently in Red China. Ad-

Jazz Lauded By Sandburg

CHICAGO (INS)—Carl Sandburg, who was in Chicago for three days to gather material for a new poem, concluded his tour last night by visiting a jazz spot.

During a two-hour stay at Jazz Limited, Sandburg especially liked a modern version of "The Battle Hymn Of The Republic" and asked the five-man combo for a second rendition.

The poet called Dixieland and New Orleans jazz the "only real American music."

Immigration Curbs Eased By 65-4 Vote

WASHINGTON (AP)—Legislation to ease present immigration restrictions somewhat was passed by the Senate last night. It apparently is assured of House passage before Congress adjourns.

While some senators called the measure unsatisfactory and inadequate, they said they were convinced any effort to broaden it would only doom the plan in the House.

They pledged, however, to try next year to make more substantial changes in the McCarran-Walter Act, the nation's basic immigration law which was passed in 1952.

The bill contains none of the major administration recommendations made last January. It would not change the quota system, or other basic immigration provisions.

Only brief debate preceded passage of the bill by a 65-4 roll call vote.

The Senate bill, like a similar bill approved last week by the House Judiciary Committee, is designed primarily to provide relief in individual hardship cases and to make it easier to reunite families.

It also would revive 18,656 non-quota immigration visas that had gone unused when the 1953 Refugee Relief Act expired last Dec. 31.

Name Of Joe Louis Enters Hoffa Probe

Teamsters' Boss Fined, Given Year

Brewster, Western Union Official, Was Found In Contempt

WASHINGTON (AP)—Frank W. Brewster, Western boss of the Teamsters Union, today was sentenced to a year in jail and fined $1,000 for contempt of Congress.

The sentence, the maximum for contempt of Congress, was imposed by U. S. District Judge John Sirica, who rejected a plea by Brewster's attorney for probation.

Free Pending Appeal

Judge Sirica allowed Brewster to remain free on $1,000 bond pending the outcome of an appeal.

Brewster's conviction June 26 grew out of his refusal to produce records and answer questions before the Senate Investigations subcommittee in January.

The 60-year-old labor official challenged the subcommittee's authority to investigate internal affairs of labor unions.

Had No Authority

Brewster told Judge Sirica today he did not believe and still does not believe the subcommittee had authority to question him.

It was because of this, he said, that he took the position that he would not produce records and answer questions.

Brewster said he had the highest regard for the courts and congressional investigation committees and that at no time did he have "in my mind and in my heart" to stop any investigation which he felt was proceeding lawfully.

Eisenhower Jumping Gun On 1958 Vote

Sen. Johnson Says Advisers Apparently Frantic Over Chances

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex.) said today President Eisenhower's political advisers "have got him jumping the gun" on 1958 campaigning by criticizing the Democratic-controlled Congress.

"It looks to me as though some of these advisers are getting frantic about their prospects in next year's congressional election," Johnson said. Control of Congress will be at stake in the balloting then.

Eisenhower told his news conference yesterday he is "tremendously disappointed" because Congress has passed so little of the legislation he recommended.

Both Held Accountable

However, Eisenhower apparently holds Republicans, as well as Democrats, accountable. He said in a response to a question that everybody who voted against "what I thought was the right thing to do—why, they have to share the blame."

Eisenhower said the proposals he sent to Congress comprise a Republican program that he said is aimed at meeting the best interests of the country as a whole.

Cites Demo Record

Johnson, Senate Democratic leader, said the record of the Democratic-controlled Congress would speak for itself.

"By the time Congress adjourns we will have given serious consideration to all of the recommendations the President has made," Johnson said. "We will have approved those we think are to the best interests of the country and will have defeated those we think are bad."

Asia Flu Hits New Orleans

NEW ORLEANS (INS)—New Orleans health authorities today battled against an epidemic of Asiatic flu which has stricken more than 200 persons.

Dr. Adolph A. Flores of Charity Hospital said his hospital has been treating "between 25 and 35" flu victims a day and added:

"The situation will probably get worse before it gets better. The number of cases has reached epidemic proportions."

The physician said medical tests have shown that the flu is "definitely of the Asiatic variety."

End To Draft Posed If Pay Plan Passed

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Symington (D-Mo.) said today congressional approval of the new military pay plan proposed by Ralph J. Cordiner would "certainly end the peacetime draft."

Cordiner, president of General Electric Co., testified yesterday that an end of conscription and annual savings of five billion dollars could result from the drastic overhaul of present military pay.

Cordiner headed a special presidential commission which has proposed revising present scales to permit substantial pay increases for technicians and skilled personnel who have been quitting the armed services in large numbers.

Sen. Stennis (D-Miss.), chairman of an Armed Services subcommittee holding initial public hearings on the proposal, said Defense Department witnesses would be called for detailed testimony later.

Cordiner told the subcommittee a key principle of the proposal would be to pay military men "for what they do and what they know, not for how long they have been around."

Freckles Betray Woman Accused In Embezzlement

TULSA, Okla. (AP)—A 51-year-old mother, who FBI authorities say weaved a fantastic trail of embezzlement through four states, Canada and Hawaii since 1939, was apprehended here because a doctor's receptionist spotted the woman's freckles.

Mrs. Margaret Lydia Burton was nabbed by the receptionist, Mrs. Juanita Hettwer, 36, as the woman she read about in a local newspaper who was being sought in connection with a $100,000 embezzlement of a Decatur, Ga., medical clinic last month.

Mrs. Burton, who the FBI says has used 22 aliases, was working as bookkeeper in the doctor's office here for about a week. She called herself Madge Barton in Tulsa.

The woman was arrested yesterday and charged with transporting stolen property in interstate commerce. She was placed in the county jail in lieu of $30,000 bond. Her daughter Sheila Joy Burton, 20, was arrested as a conspirator and failed to post $10,000 bond.

Senator Raps Air Reservist Promotion Act

Sen. Smith Claims Stewart, 10 Others Lack Full Training

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Margaret Chase Smith (R-Maine) today takes her fight against a general's rank for movie actor James Stewart to the Senate Armed Services Committee.

Mrs. Smith for several months has blocked committee action on Stewart's nomination to be a brigadier general in the Air Force Reserve. She contends the screen hero and others on an 11-man promotion list did not properly fulfill reserve training requirements.

Nominees for two Pentagon posts—Paul D. Foote to be an assistant secretary of defense and Richard D. Jackson to be an assistant secretary of the Navy—were called for questioning in public. A closed session was arranged for later to consider the reserve nominations.

President Eisenhower on Feb. 23 sent the names of Stewart and 10 other air reservists to the Senate for confirmation as brigadier or major generals. Stewart was a World War II combat pilot and now has a reserve colonel's commission.

Sen. Smith, herself a lieutenant colonel in the Air Reserve and chief sponsor of recent reserve legislation, opposed the promotion from the beginning.

She said Stewart is a friend and she admires his acting ability and wartime service. But she contended the movie star did not meet reserve training requirements until his proposed promotion to general.

Caution Urged In Vaccine Use

NEW YORK (AP)—The City Health Department warns against indiscriminate administration of Asiatic flu vaccine to children.

The acting health commissioner, Dr. Roscoe P. Kandle, yesterday cited the cases of two children, not identified, who suffered severe reactions from inoculations. The youngsters, whose ages were not given, suffered high fever, soreness and swelling of the arm.

He said children suffer more severe reactions to influenza vaccine than adults. The question of receiving a flu inoculation, he said, should be left to the child's personal physician.

Syria Tells West To Stay Out Or Risk Another War

DAMASCUS, Syria (INS)—Soviet-oriented Syria officially warned the western nations today to stay out of its affairs or risk a third world war.

Information minister Salih Akil said "The slightest foreign intervention in Syria will increase international tension and threaten a third world war."

Imperialism, he said, "tries to create cause and find grounds, to continue pressure on Syria to carry out its wishes and accept alliances such as the Eisenhower policy."

"But Syria," he added, "will stick to her policy. This will not

Paid To Sit In Audience During Trial

Both Deny Alleged Payment To Former Boxing Champion

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. McClellan (D-Ark.) said today he has a report that former heavyweight champion Joe Louis was paid $2,500 to sit at Teamsters boss James R. Hoffa's recent bribery trial for two hours.

In Chicago Louis said "I didn't get 25 nothin'."

The former champion said he and Hoffa had been friends for 10 or 12 years and he had gone to the trial expecting to be called as a character witness. He was not called.

"I wish I had $2,500," he commented.

Hoffa was acquitted of the charge by a jury made up of eight Negroes and four white persons. Members of the jury said in later interviews that the racial issue had not entered into their decision.

McClellan told Hoffa about the report as the Teamsters boss started a third day of quizzing by the Senate Rackets Investigating Committee about his alleged links with New York racketeers. The Arkansas senator heads the committee.

Denies Paying Him

Hoffa replied: "If he was, he wasn't paid by Hoffa."

McClellan asked Hoffa to check to see whether any Teamsters funds were used to pay Louis an appearance fee.

It was Hoffa's third day in the witness chair, and the committee promised to play more wiretapped telephone conversations with New York racketeers.

The committee contends that Hoffa formed an alliance several years ago with Johnny Dio to enhance Hoffa's power in the New York area.

Hoffa is odds-on choice to succeed Dave Beck as president of the 1½-million member Teamsters Union, largest in the nation.

Dio, a convicted extortionist, is now in jail awaiting sentence. He has long had a reputation as a racketeer.

One In Evidence

Already in evidence is one recorded phone talk between Hoffa and Dio, back in February 1953, in which they called each other "Jim" and "Jack." The recording was made by New York police under court order.

Dio, then an official of another union, complained over the phone to Hoffa that the Teamsters were hornoring in on Dio's efforts to organize New York City taxi drivers. Hoffa promised to take it up with Beck.

Chairman McClellan has charged Hoffa arranged Teamsters Union charters for Dio, Tony (Ducks) Corallo and other New York racketeers in late 1955 to expand Hoffa's own union powers in the city.

The hoodlums, McClellan has charged, helped oust New York Teamsters boss Martin Lacey and put in John O'Rourke, Hoffa's hand-picked candidate.

Disarm Talk End Nears; No Decision

U. S. Officials Expect Finish In Two Weeks
As Deadlock Holds

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON (AP)—U.S. officials expect the London disarmament talks to recess in about two weeks without agreement for ending the East-West arms race.
President Eisenhower's new concession to Russia on suspending nuclear tests is regarded here as improving the Western position for negotiating and propaganda. But it does not appear to have broken the basic deadlock.
A White House statement yesterday announced Western readiness to accept conditionally a two-year—instead of a 10-month—suspension of tests. This statement implied that the Soviet Union must now make concessions.
There have been no indications the Soviet Union will make any important gesture soon.

Must Renounce Link
On the contrary, Soviet Delegate Valerian Zorin told American, British, French and Canadian representatives yesterday that if they intend seriously to end nuclear tests they must renounce the link between that issue and the Western demand for an agreement to stop production of atomic explosions for military purposes.
Zorin, according to a report to the State Department, welcomed the offer for a two-year test suspension when it was formally presented by U.S. negotiator Harold Stassen with Eisenhower's personal authorization. But news dispatches from London quoted Zorin as saying the new Western proposal contains too many unacceptable conditions. Zorin did, however, promise to give the proposal careful study.

Insisted On 2 to 3 Years
Russia had proposed in mid-June that tests be suspended for two or three years and had then repeatedly attacked the Western insistence on the 10-month period.
An Eisenhower statement described the new Western offer as a significant change in U.S. disarmament policy.
The statement emphasized that any suspension of nuclear weapons tests would be agreed to by the United States and its allies only under "certain conditions and safeguards."
The most important of these conditions, the statement made clear, is that the suspension should be part of an agreement for "a permanent cessation of production of fissionable materials for weapons purposes and installation of inspection systems to insure performance."

Ike To Receive Bill To Enshrine Famous Carrier

WASHINGTON (AP)—A House resolution designed to save the famed aircraft carrier Enterprise from the scrap heap was headed for President Eisenhower's desk today.
The measure authorizes the Navy to turn the historic World War II vessel over to an association headed by Fleet Adm. William F. (Bull) Halsey (ret). The association plans to maintain the Enterprise here as a permanent national shrine.
The Enterprise now is in the Brooklyn Navy Yard. It originally was scheduled to be scrapped.

First national nominating committee was held in Baltimore, Maryland, on September 26, 1831.

Legion Aide Disputes Jap Trial Of Girard

TOKYO (INS)—A representative of the American Legion declared in Tokyo today that a Japanese court still has "no right" to try GI William Girard because he "was on duty" at the time he killed a Japanese woman.
The U. S. Supreme Court has ruled that Japan has jurisdiction in the case.
Alvin Owsley, who will be an observer at the Illinois soldier's trial which opens Monday in Maebashi district court 70 miles north of Tokyo, added, however, "If the court acquits Girard or gives him a suspended sentence it will electrify America and soften the apprehension of many Americans who feel William Girard stands in great peril when he stands before the bar of Japan."
"Depending on his sentence and the verdict, this case would be the instrument for a wave of fine feelings between our two nations."

Owsley, a 68-year-old Dallas lawyer and former envoy to Rumania, Ireland and Denmark, attacked the Supreme Court decision last month that allowed the 22-year-old Army specialist to be turned over to a Japanese court for trial in the firing range slaying of 46-year-old Mrs. Naka Sakai last January.

Ousted Syria Military Aide Ignores Call

Sees No Justice In Plot Charge Because Regime Is Changing

ROME (AP)—Syria's ousted military attache in Rome says the regime is changing in his country and that he probably will not return to Damascus to face charges of participating in a purported American plot to overthrow Syria's government.
Col. Ibrahim Husseiny was fired from his diplomatic post last week. He said then he would return home and declared he had absolute confidence in his country's justice. But last night he said: "For the time being I will not move from Rome."
He noted reports from Damascus that army officers have been arrested on charges of conspiring with the United States to overthrow President Shukri Kuwatly's government, a charge firmly denied by the U.S. State Department.
"The situation in my country has worsened in the past few days," Husseiny said. "Now it is no longer a question of whether I am guilty. The reality now is that in Syria they are changing regime. Tell me what sort of justice I would find there if I decided to go back."

Scientist Reports 'Life' Created In Laboratory

MOSCOW (INS)—An Indian scientist claimed today that he has created life in a laboratory. He made known his discovery in a cable which interrupted the Moscow conference on the origin of life.

The cable, read by session president Prof. Hoffman-Ostenhof of the University of Vienna, was signed by Layji Bhai Patel. It was sent from Junagadh, India. The cable read:

"Life under laboratory conditions created (stop) Initial success (stop) Further experiments on hand."

Scientists attending the meeting refused to comment on the cable.

Earlier, American professor Wendell Stanley of the University of California revealed that from experiments he had concluded that a virus was the "missing link" in the chain of life.

He said viruses which hitherto were considered crystalline substances "are alive and like living things can reproduce and mutate."

The scientists added that in the life-scale, viruses come between molecules and bacteria which until now had been considered the smallest living things.

Professor Stanley Fox of Florida State University, Tallahassee, presented a new "chemical theory" of spontaneous generation.

Previous theories were that life on earth arose from decaying matter. In experiments Fox said he submitted non-living matter to

Record Number Of Pupils Set In Anne Arundel

ANNAPOLIS (P) — A record number of 34,000 students will jam crowded classrooms in Anne Arundel County when the new school term opens Sept. 5.

Enrollment will be up an estimated 3,000 over last year and will be almost two and one-half times the figure of 12 years ago, according to Dr. David S. Jenkins, schools superintendent.

Enrollment figures have exceeded themselves each of the past 10 years, Jenkins said.

The number of teachers will also set a new record. There will be 1,325 this fall, an increase of 110 over last year. However, all the teachers needed have not yet been procured, Jenkins said.

The county will be hard put to accommodate all its students, Jenkins said, but construction plans are being pushed as rapidly as possible on a number of projects to provide relief.

In the 13th century, the art of embroidery attained a perfection in England that never has been surpassed, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

Defendant Tells Court: Stories In Confidential Magazine Substantiated

LOS ANGELES (P) — Investigators for Confidential magazine substantiated stories about singer Dorothy Dandridge and actress Mae West with signed statements from the men involved, a defendant in the libel trial has testified.

Fred Meade, who with his wife Marjorie operated Hollywood Research, Inc., said yesterday that bandleader Dan Terry gave him an affidavit about a purported affair with Miss Dandridge.

And Meade said he and private detective Barney Ruditsky obtained a statement from the late boxer Chalky Wright that he lived in an apartment with Miss West for a year.

Meade testified that he interviewed boxers about "Miss West's affinity for prize fighters."

Meade, who is being tried along with his wife and Confidential and Whisper magazines on charges of conspiracy to commit criminal libel, said he also got a signed statement from Hollywood play girl Gloria Wellman that she and five other women cavorted in the nude at the home of actor John Carroll.

Meade, 33, painted a detailed picture of Hollywood Research's wholesale sifting of movieland scandal reports.

He said that in the year and a half he and his wife operated Hollywood Research, they checked out about 750 possible stories.

"Most of them failed to develop," he said.

Meade said he paid a private detective, Fred Otash, $35,000 in 18 months to run down rumors of scandals that had come to his ears.

Under questioning by defense attorney Arthur J. Crowley, Meade denied that he "ever offered any girl or woman anything to go out and entice anyone into an embarrassing situation."

High Octane Gas Explodes, Five Burned

Fuel Was Being Loaded On Barge In Baltimore Harbor

BALTIMORE (P) — A crew of 14 was loading high-octane gasoline in a 230-foot motor barge in Baltimore Harbor yesterday when something went wrong.

The resulting fire and series of explosions burned five men, four of them seriously, and kept city fireboats and Coast Guard craft busy for more than five hours.

The fire finally put itself out last night when the water-laden stern of the vessel sank to the bottom in 20 feet of water. The Coast Guard had planned to sink it if the supply of fire-fighting chemical foam ran out.

Firemen didn't finish their work until after midnight. The Coast Guard alone had about 50 men on the job.

Charles H. Thiess, deputy city fire chief, said the fire broke out in the pumping equipment of the 1,064-ton M. V. Lake Charles, owned by the Lake Tanker Corp. of Wilmington, Del.

George A. Sudbrook, 44, of Baltimore, a crewman on the fireboat "Deluge," was treated for burns of the face and hands and released.

Still hospitalized today, all in fair condition, were:

George D. Beattie, 49, of Fall River, Mass., engine room chief on the Lake Charles, first and second degree burns from the waist up.

Charles Elliott, 34, Portland, Maine, Beattie's assistant chief, also first and second degree burns over his upper body.

Roy Peeler, 37, Keyport, N.J., another Lake Charles crewman, second and third degree burns. Peeler had been in critical condition earlier.

Steve Pusloski, 31, Baltimore city fireman, burns of the face and hands.

Eleven other crewmen on the Lake Charles escaped without injury.

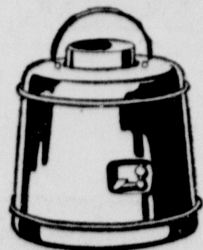

Known technically as a motor barge, the boat resembles a small tanker. Today, it lay with stern on bottom and bow on water.

There were about 14,000 barrels of aviation gasoline aboard, scheduled for delivery to Washington National Airport. Small, internal explosions continued for hours after the barge was blanketed with the chemical foam.

There was no immediate indication if the owners would refloat it before unloading, or what would be done.

Common name of the shrike is butcherbird, coming from their habit of thrusting mice and smaller birds onto thorns or forked twigs, much as a butcher hangs meat on hooks. Shrikes then tear their prey to pieces and eat it.

Demos See California As Key To Strategy

WASHINGTON — We all know that California is the real "Here I Come" state, as of now, so far as national Republican politics and the party's 1960 Presidential nomination are concerned. It holds the key.

It is, in truth, busting out all over. The party's two leading candidates are its native sons about whom we have seen and heard a lot here lately—especially during the civil rights battle. They are Vice President Richard M. Nixon and Senator William F. Knowland, Senate GOP leader.

Now there's a third who is sure to figure some way or other in this California free-for-all. If Governor Goodwin J. (Goody) Knight could defeat Knowland for the Republican nomination for Governor and win another term, he just might decide he is Presidential stuff, himself, and try to get the California delegation and beat Vice President Nixon out of the prize.

So much for the Republicans.

BUT NOBODY has given much attention thus far to another factor. This is that California, with its 32 electoral votes, also is mighty important to the Democrats in their attempted comeback. In fact, they are talking plenty about it among themselves and putting it down as a "must" if they expect to recapture the White House in 1960.

They recognize California as a key in their strategy that is predicated upon a Democratic West, along with the South, as a base upon which to add enough of the East to win in 1960.

In this build-up process, California becomes just as important to the Democrats next year as to the Republicans. Democrats could, at the same time, upset a lot of Republican plans for 1960 built around the party's California talent school.

MUCH discussed now as a 1958 Democratic team is Attorney General Pat Brown as candidate for Governor and Representative Clair Engle, 14-year veteran of the House of Representatives and now chairman of the Interior Committee so important to California interests, as candidate for the Senate seat which Knowland has announced he will not seek again next year.

Pat Brown, who has practically lost his original front names of Edmund Gerald—and in politics you could see why—has been Attorney General since 1951. That job was held even longer by a Republican who finally gave it up to become Governor and now is Chief Justice of the United States—Earl Warren.

Like his predecessor, Brown is a great vote-getter. With that and the Earl Warren path so well beaten for him, Democrats figure this all might mean a change from the long spell of bad luck they have had in California. That ill fortune was due in part to that same Warren who had an uncanny fascination for Democrats. They voted for him in droves.

In fact, ever since Warren left California politics and came here on the bench and began issuing civil rights decisions to cause Democrats political troubles nationally, the Democratic party in California has been looking up.

IN THE 1956 election Democrats cut down the Eisenhower-Nixon majority in California from 1952, picked up two members of the House of Representatives to give the state delegation of 13 Democrats and 17 Republicans, and picked up four State Senators, to make the division 20-20 with the Republicans, and six members of the state House of Representatives to bring their total to 38 to 42 Republicans.

Democrats hope this showing will induce Brown to give up his Attorney General's post and run for Governor. His reluctance to yield this job, which pays better than Governor, gives him another point of similarity with Warren, who was a man with a large family and, in his time, hard to persuade to seek political promotion at less pay.

If Knowland should be defeated in the primary by Knight—or win that and lose to Brown—his Presidential goose would be cooked.

THE SENATOR is expected to announce his candidacy soon. In his contest with Knight, he will have the support of Nixon. There is a deep personal antagonism between Nixon and Knight. Thus two rivals for the 1960 nomination, Knowland and Nixon, are thrown into a temporary alliance.

If Knowland became Governor, his control of the party in California would be strengthened. However, this is a chance that Nixon has to take, things being as mixed up as they are in California.

There's one statistic that reminds Democrats of the job they are up against in trying to defeat Knowland. This is that in his 1952 re-election he polled the largest vote ever given any candidate for office in California—3,982,443 votes to his opponent's 589,992. This he proudly records in his biography in the Congressional Directory.

First Lady Faces Heavy Fall Schedule

WASHINGTON (NEA) — As soon as it was determined that Mamie's operation was a complete success everyone from the last White House butler to Ike's top aides was overjoyed.

Mamie's warm, easy-going understanding method of supervising the living conditions of the executive mansion has won her the deep affection of the whole staff.

Every day during her stay at Walter Reed Army Hospital almost every White House employee sent her a personal card or note urging a speedy recovery. Every time Ike drove out 16th Street to the hospital he and the Secret Service men would be asked to deliver some special cake, a little gift, or a bouquet of cut flowers from the White House garden which some member of the staff wanted Mamie to have.

She got a great kick out of this spontaneous expression of affection and sent a special message of thanks to each donor.

When informed of the avalanche of mail she cried, "Oh dear, that's too bad because it means that I can't answer each one personally."

Mamie has been the most prolific letter-writing First Lady in history. When it's humanly possible within her crowded schedule she insists on answering every letter she gets personally.

In spite of the fact that Mamie and Ike have been spending much time at Gettysburg she hasn't relaxed her careful attention to the details of running the White House. For example, when she returned from her recent trip to Denver she saw a maid at work who was supposed to be on vacation.

Mamie's inquiry revealed that the maid had traded vacation weeks with another maid, which was fine with the First Lady.

Glancing Sideways

VALLE DE BRAVO, Mex. — A letter to John O'Hara, Esq., Princeton, New Jersey.

Dear John: There is no way for me to know, down here on a mountaintop 3,000 miles from Princeton, what you are working on, if anything.

Just about the only reason the folding up of Collier's affected me personally was that your weekly, open window on O'Hara was snapped shut. Before it folded, I could go almost anywhere in the world and know what you were up to and working on. Now I have to guess.

I imagine, however, since you are restless and unhappy when not working, that a new book is taking at least outline. There isn't much else for you to do in Princeton except either write or polish up your 27 pairs of shoes. Once they have been boned and polished, there is nothing else to do but write.

ASSUMING that you are writing that you have arrived at that state in which you'd like to crawl into a hole to finish and polish, without the shrill, mosquito-like stab of the telephone or the thunderous yammering at the front door, I'd like to suggest that you bundle up what you have and come down here.

It's 90 miles from Mexico City, it has no telephones whatsoever, there are small, immaculate, cottages (three of them), a towering mountain, jungle growths, a few orchids clinging to trees and looking like dyed bats, and a waterfall which might or might not drive you insane.

It makes exactly the same noise 24 hours a day — a soft, unobtrusive, liquid roar. The only time it changes is when rain or snow fall on the volcano at Toluca, 56 miles away, and then in a few hours the color of the water changes from cotton white to chocolate brown.

THEY FEED you well, too well, and you'll have to bring some resistance and willpower with you. They will clean your cottage, give you fresh linen, offer you their table and then leave you alone. If you want a snack at midday without leaving the cottage, you yell down the bluff 50 feet and they bring it up.

I mention this place because

Fly Boys Cause Trouble

WASHINGTON—If our fly boys kindly would be a little more careful and not go spraying weed killer on the neighbors' cotton crops, they'd save President Eisenhower some trouble and the taxpayers some cash.

As for scooping up freshly-laid concrete with the blast from a jet and sending it through the air like a giant gob of custard from a Keystone Kop comedy, I wish the aviators would go easy on that, too. 'Tain't funny. They'd also dump the rest of us if they'd quit dumping trash from 20,000 feet.

THE POINT here is that President Eisenhower again has sent to Congress the annual bill for damages done by military aviators and others, with his request the gentlemen authorize payment.

Let us consider, for instance, the commander of Shaw Air Force Base, S. C., who calculated there were so many weeds growing in the premises that he'd never lick 'em with a thousand hoses.

So he sent his fliers aloft with loads of weed killer to spray on the grass between the runways. A breeze started to blow, unnoticed by anybody and not until weeks later did nearby farmers see their cotton fields turning brown.

They soon found the culprits and handed to the Air Force combined bills of $21,461.46 for 248 acres of cotton ruined.

THE PRESIDENT sent along the case of the Enterprise Engineering and Construction Company, which was in the process of troweling the concrete for new runways at Dover Air Force Base, Del., when some stupe started his jet.

The blast ripped up $4,169.20 worth of wet cement like cream and sent it splattering over the landscape. If Congress agrees with Mr. Eisenhower, we taxpayers will foot the bill.

Then there was the Air Force jeep scurrying around Ciampino Airport, Rome, Italy, with the driver apparently reading a comic book; he collided with a Constellation flying machine owned by El Al Israel Airlines, Ltd., of Tel Aviv.

The airline people said their plane suffered $168,578.83 damages (that helped them have been whizzing). The Air Force offered $44,335.28, which the firm agreed to accept, and I claim that was a costly jeep ride.

ON LAST February 1 a B-47 of the Air Force was flying over Southern California when there dropped from it a rope. This tangled in the lines of the Southern California Edison Company, causson would be cut below what it was last year. Mamie, it is reported, has kept it as active as it has been. But even if there is no so-called official social season the First Lady must carry a heavy schedule of official duties such as appearing at luncheons and teas.

Mamie is also in great demand among her personal friends. She visits as many as she can fit into her schedule.

Reporter's Notebook

NEW YORK—If Daniel Boone were born again tomorrow, he'd die of claustrophobia before he even became a teen-ager.

He couldn't survive the eternal sameness of life that is a growing curse in a civilization becoming ever more crowded.

How crowded can one get? Well, I was told the other day of a psychiatrist who now makes his patients lie down on his couch in pairs and tell their troubles together. The doctor allots one of his ears to each patient.

The individual man is getting lost ever more deeply in the mass of mankind. The few fresh words are teamwork and the get-togethers.

Nobody ever does anything by himself any more. Legend has it that Sir Isaac Newton discovered the law of gravity when a falling apple conked his noggin.

IF THE SAME thing happened today, Sir Isaac would have to issue a public statement saying: "Gentlemen, this was a team job in every way."

"Without the whole-hearted and heart-warming support of my silent colleague, the apple tree, this great achievement would have been impossible. No man could have done it alone."

Modern man's crying need is for some form of self-expression, some way to prove his own individuality, the thing that sets him apart from rock, stone, tree and—yes, even all his other fellow men.

He needs, in other words, to be different so that his treadmill days will know the spice of variety.

Here are a few tips on how a poor worm can turn, if he dares to be different:

If your wife tells you to help with dishes, tell her flatly, "No, I'm tired of doing the dishes for you."

After a little surprised argument, she will give in. Then you can go into the kitchen and do the dishes all by yourself.

DOES THE WAITER habitually keep you waiting for half an hour before asking your order? Remember, you don't have to take this kind of treatment sitting down. Bawl him out. Then stand up and wait.

Are you bored with getting the same dunning letters from a loan company? Why not borrow from another firm? Then you can get the same old dunning letters over a different signature.

Change your daily habits. If you've been smoking a cigarette with only 20,000 tiny filters, switch to a brand with 20,001 tiny filters.

Pep up your hobbies. If you've devoted some of the best years of your leisure to watching rose-breasted grosbeaks, try watching a new bird, such as the downy-throated dowager. Better yet, forget birds and turn to animals. Study poolroom sharks.

Naturally, the question arises, how about women? Is there no way to make women more different?

Yes, there is—but they probably won't do it.

The best way for modern women to become more different, all experts agree, is for them to become less indifferent.

That'll be the day.

Washington Scene

WASHINGTON—Senator Pat McNamara, of Michigan, a Democratic member of the Senate Rackets Committee, came into the hearing room the other day literally quivering with laughter. The inquiry that day had been interesting, but not exactly hilarious, so I was puzzled by the lawmaker's mirth.

Finally Chairman McClellan ordered a recess so the Senators could answer a roll call. I grabbed McNamara in the corridor, which is as good a place to grab a Senator as any. I asked what was tickling him.

He went into a new paroxysm of laughter. At last he controlled himself enough to splutter:

"I've got a friend named Nate Tarnow in town. He's in the wholesale electrical business in Detroit."

"That certainly is uproarious," I agreed. "I've never heard anything so funny."

"I haven't finished," rumbled the legislator. "Nate Tarnow just perpetrated the ultimate in subtle insults. Are you familiar with an American League umpire named John Flaherty?"

"I am never familiar with umpires," I said severely.

"Well, Tarnow is. He sent this umpire—ha, ha, ha!—a gift. He sent him—ho, ho, ho!—a braille watch."

THE CAPITOL HAS changed its telephone number. It used to be National 8-3120. Now it's Capitol 4-3121. But it is about to make another telephonic change even more radical than that. It is putting in a dial switchboard, which will have all sorts of odd codes.

In the possibly improbable event that you do not wish to speak to Senator Francis Case, of South Dakota, but crave to converse with his secretary, May Aaberg, you will only have to look at the first name in the just-off-the-presses new Capitol Telephone Directory, dial Capitol 4-3121, then 2163. If May doesn't answer, hang up.

Suppose you are temporarily put out with Vice President Nixon and determined not to speak to him, but feel otherwise about his executive secretary, Rosemary Woods. You just need to dial the Capitol, then 1142, and you will either get Rosemary or her assistant secretaries, Mary A. Fenton, Lois Grace Gaunt, Ann B. Gilhuly, Gladys M. Hook, Adele Keller, Marilyn Matthews, Maureen Mulqueen, Elizabeth Newton, or Betty Jane Pickler.

I never knew, until this new book fell into my hands prematurely, that the Vice President has so many females helping him, with such cute names.

IF THE SENATE Rackets Committee is still functioning when the dial system goes into operation late this fall, you will not have to bother Chairman McClellan if you want to inquire if there is to be a televised hearing that day. You can dial the chief clerk, Ruth Watt Young, on 1652, and if Ruth doesn't know what you want you can get her assistant, Georgia Wilbur, on 1675.

Wait a minute, there's something funny here. If you want Chief Counsel Robert F. Kennedy, he'll also be on 1652. This poses a very significant question, if Watt's on the telephone, who's on second?

The directory states that if you dial 131 you will get the Panama Canal, but then takes all the fun out of it with an asterisk which explains: "Asterisk preceding a listing indicates that it probably will answer under name of another agency."

Suez, maybe?

Changing Voters

THE BUSINESS world is studded with market research outfits which help businessmen gauge probable customer response to their products and services. It might be a good idea if the politicians turned to this device in a big way. They already do use existing research organizations to some extent, of course. Potential candidates often run off a little private survey before taking the plunge. But if things keep on as they're going, they may need soundings on a big scale. The reason is plain. The complexion of their constituency is changing so rapidly with the changing face of America that it is hard to record it accurately from election to election.

EVERYBODY knows that the country's farm population has been falling steadily for a long time. By the 1958 elections the farmers may well represent no more than one in every ten voters. This means politicians will give less thought to the "farm vote," that legislators from predominantly farm states will speak with a smaller voice in Congress, that the balance of political strength will shift more than ever to the populous, highly urbanized states. Within those latter states, the great migration to the suburbs continues, thus weakening further the old city organizations and buttressing the conservative vote common in the outlying sectors. "Winning the city" doesn't have the triumphant ring in political ears it used to have. Big migrations proceed unchecked toward the Far West, the Southwest and the South, too. The net effect seems to be, up to now anyway, to make the East somewhat more Republican, the West more Democratic and the South for the first time a real two-party region in some parts.

WITH THESE churning shifts still in progress and evidently due to continue indefinitely, it is a rare politician who can keep really close tabs on the makeup of his constituency from year to year. What is happening, naturally, makes election campaigns infinitely more intriguing to the onlooker, though painfully uncertain for the politician. More important, without any evident loss of stability in government, it introduces a greater fluidity and flexibility into the American political system which serves well the cause of democracy. The age of political czarism, of easy entrenchment in "sure" districts, appears to be fading. In their restless moving about, Americans have got their society in ferment, no doubt of it. Probably there aren't many politicians who wouldn't like to see this popular game of political musical chairs called off for a while.

NEW YORK CITY officials disappointed in a recent special census are caking for a recount, asserting that many absentees were not listed. Then, too, some no doubt went into hiding for bill collectors.

Flu Symptoms

ALTHOUGH THE much heralded U. S. epidemic of Asiatic flu has not yet arrived, the symptoms of this disease are popping up on all sides. This is not surprising, for a couple of reasons. The first of these is the widespread publicity given Asiatic flu and the fact that it may reach epidemic proportions in the United States this fall and winter. Almost everyone is familiar with the symptoms by now. As always happens in such cases, many people have begun to think that their particular aches fit the description exactly. Then too, there is the fact that the symptoms of Asiatic flu are very much like those of the ordinary variety. There are always a few cases of flu around, and only laboratory tests will show whether it is the Asiatic brand or not. The important thing is to treat the disease with respect—consult a doctor at the first signs of chills and soreness, stay in bed until well after the fever subsides, don't get back into full harness too soon. Asiatic flu is nothing to fool with, as those who have undergone its discomfort can attest. But it is nothing to get into a panic over, either.

MAKERS of reducing pills fool overweight people, according to testimony before a Senate committee. The manufacturers, apparently, are willing to live off the fat of the land.

You know how to keep a confidence; never betray a trust. This, of course, if you are living true to your finer self. Birthdate: King Louis XVI of France; W. E. Henley, poet, critic, editor.

Committee Upholds Lawyer's Rights In Testifying

BALTIMORE (AP) — A special committee of the Bar Assn. of Baltimore City says attorney Harold Buchman was within his legal rights in refusing to answer questions about Communists and communism.

Buchman, former executive secretary of the Maryland Progressive Party, invoked the fifth and first amendments when questioned by the House Un-American Activities subcommittee here last May.

The committee said there was no ground for disciplinary action against Buchman for his refusal to answer the questions.

The group pointed out it did not go into the question of whether Buchman, by his actions, had breached the association's canons of professional ethics. Another bar committee is studying that phase of the case.

Mary Haworth's Mail

Editor's Note: Wife asks how to go about getting proof that mate's first marriage ended?

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: I have been married 18 years to a wonderful man, and I really believe that he loves me as I love him. We have two adopted sons, ages three and six years.

Now for the problem: When Dan was very young, before I knew him, he married another girl. He had known her only about a week, but was mad at his mother at the time and married to spite her. Almost at once he knew he had made a mistake and never lived with the girl as man and wife.

Shortly after the marriage he left that town and the girl's sister had the marriage annulled.

Just before Dan and I were married, he told me of the other marriage and the annulment—but he didn't have any papers or other proof that there was an annulment. He only knew of it when he read in the newspaper that an annulment had been granted.

TV Story Sparks Her Misgivings

Well, I took his word for it—but I saw a story on TV the other night that started me worrying. I think we should have proof of that annulment. I want my sons to be protected if my husband should die. I want proper evidence that our relationship is legal, so that nothing, ever, can make the adoptions illegal.

So, how can I get evidence that there was an annulment? Or should I try to find out about it? Is there anything to worry about? If I ought to get evidence, how go about it? (And still keep things quiet.) I don't want to cause talk in our small town. Can you help me?—F. P.

Lawyer Cites Simple Method

DEAR F. P.: A spokesman for the Legal Aid Bureau in my town outlines the following direct simple method of getting proof of an annulment (if any).

Write to the Clerk of the County Court, in the county where the girl and her sister were living at the time the marriage ceremony was performed—or where the annulment proceedings presumably transpired (or where published in the newspaper).

Ask this official to check the court records, to ascertain if there is, on file, documentary evidence of annulment granted to (let's say) Amy Doakes versus Dan Blank, in the year (say) 1935.

In your letter of inquiry, furnish the clerk such information as you have, based on your husband's recollections, as to the probable date of the annulment action. The clerk's office may require a small fee in advance, for handling the necessary research and copy work. If so, the clerk will advise you, and you can mail the $2 (or whatever).

At Least Three Possible Helpers

Assuming the back files are stored elsewhere, the clerk will know how to route your letter, to obtain the wanted records (supposing they exist). In the event there is no record of the annulment, in that particular jurisdiction, you should continue your search for verification through other channels.

For example, I understand that a county welfare board is the only social service agency in your community. And you may shrink from discussing this very intimate worry with its representatives. If so, I suggest you take the problem to your clergyman or a trusted lawyer.

A good man in either of these professional fields will have the know-how to spearhead your quest for certitude, as regards the legality of your marriage and the legality of the children's adoption status.

Giving Proof Of Uprightness

Preacher or lawyer will help you think through, and track down, any and all clues leading to clarification of these questions: Was the elopement annulled or not? If not, did a valid marriage exist? If a valid marriage was made, that wasn't annulled, how may you unravel the tangle, even at this late date, and get your partnership with Dan on a legitimate foundation?

Don't be afraid to pursue this type of inquiry. Bear in mind that the very best proof of your uprightness of character, your fitness as wife and mother, is given in the fact that you want to be sure your situation is sound—now that doubts have kindled, after all these years. But do be discreet, in disclosing your worry only to qualified helpers—such as the clerk of courts, or a lawyer or churchman, as I've said.

Incidentally, in the capital city, not far from where you write, there is a first-class Legal Aid Bureau, also a Family Service Society, either of which might advise you further.—M. H.

Small Town Gets $30,000 In Auto Fines

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP) — Is it permissible for a village on a main highway to expect to pay virtually all of its municipal bills with traffic fines?

That question has been posed by State Tax Commissioner John A. Field, Jr. to the attorney general's office.

He said that the village of Valley Grove, with a population of 800 located on U.S. 40 between Wheeling and Pittsburgh, listed income of $30,000 in police fines and costs, and $240 from rents, buildings and concessions in its levy estimates for the current fiscal year.

Valley Grove had a 25 m.p.h. speed limit on U.S. 40 through town, but it was raised recently to 40 m.p.h.

Field asked the attorney general for his opinion on whether he could approve such a levy estimate, or if he is required to approve it.

"Quite frankly," Field wrote, "if I am not so required, I do not want to condone this type of municipal operation, or financing."

He said the town's books showed $20,451 in its treasury, mostly from traffic fines.

New Idea

The idea of naturalization is a modern development. Until 1870, a man remained a citizen of his native land no matter where he lived.

Social Security Program Extended

Police and firemen of Maryland are in line to be eligible for Social Security benefits as the result of the passage of an amended House Bill yesterday in the Senate and House of Representatives.

An original House Bill lost by one vote in Congress.

Mayor Roy W. Eves, president of the Maryland Municipal League, which highly favored the passage of the legislation, learned of the bill's passage in a phone conversation with Sen. J. Glenn Beall.

Senator Beall said he and Rep. DeWitt S. Hyde, of the Sixth Congressional District, tacked an amendment onto the original bill which had been defeated in Congress. Yesterday the amended bill, HR 8755, cleared the Senate and House.

Local police and firemen were not eligible for Social Security benefits, but have been covered by a state pension plan and also receive benefits of the local Police and Firemen's Welfare Association.

The state pension plan or the local welfare association benefits will not be affected if the police or firemen here decide to enter the Social Security program, Mayor Eves said.

The name "canteloupe" came from the castle of Canteloupe, in Italy, where they first were grown in Europe.

'Ranger' Is Rough, Ready

A truck that "swims," climbs sand dunes, pulls itself out of holes, drives sideways, reaches out to pick up a load and travels backward at 25 m.p.h. has been unveiled by the U. S. Army Quartermaster Corps. Nicknamed the "Ranger," but officially designated a "rough terrain fork truck," the machine is designed to move military supplies from landing craft to inland points under combat conditions. The Ranger was designed to Army specifications by the Clark Equipment Company. Photos below show the Ranger in operation during a special exercise at Fort Story, Va.

The Ranger can operate in five feet of water. It can traverse surf, climb ramp of landing craft, pick up load and return to the beach.

Ranger picks up load with hydraulic "arms" or forks that reach up, out, down or two feet either side of center. All four wheels turn sideways.

Sal Maglie To Make TV Debut On Hour Show

By WILLIAM GLOVER

NEW YORK (AP)—Baseball Star Sal Maglie is cool, calm and fairly confident about suddenly becoming television's newest pioneer.

"I know what I'm going to do, but not how," he declared in the tones of a pitcher familiar with tight spots on the diamond.

Sal, sometimes known as "The Barber" for his ability at shaving the hitting averages of opponent, steps before the NBC-TV network cameras Sunday as the first baseball expert to try big league dramatic acting.

He will perform in "The Littlest Little Leaguer," an hour-long opus coming to bat at 9 p. m. (EDT). The plot concerns an 11-year-old, lad, played by Peter Lazer, who has a burning ambition to play the game.

Although Maglie will be cast as Maglie, and there will be a few brief film clips of Ebbets Field where he performs in real life for the Brooklyn Dodgers the drama venture will be unusual for at least two reasons.

Sal will appear on camera only in street clothes, and his two big scenes will require a certain minimum of emotional portrayal, rather than athletic prowess.

"If I have the cues and lines I'll be all right," he said with the serenity of a man with nerves under firm control.

"I'm just going to try to get those words out. I guess you might say I follow the teleprompter school of acting."

The noted moundsman prefers to defer discussion of subsequent stage ventures until completion of the Sunday stint.

Confronted with 15 pages of dialogue, including several extended speeches, Maglie takes an attentive attitude toward his dramatic debut.

"I take this with me wherever I go this week," he said, waving the script. "And that includes into the dugout. I hope Alston understands."

Walter Alston, manager of the Dodgers, has nodded his approval. "I try to learn the big ones first," explains Maglie of his rehearsal methods.

As for stage fright, swarthy Sal indicates he feels no more concern than any other man who is used to being called into ball games at crucial spots.

Clean Their Food

Raccoons was their food before eating it. It is thought this habit originates in their need to wash the mud from frogs and turtles they lift out of the mire.

Woman Dies Of Gun Wound

ANNAPOLIS (AP)—Anne Arundel County Police have listed the death of a 28-year-old Odenton woman as suicide.

Mrs. Eva Jane January of Patuxent Road, Odenton, was pronounced dead yesterday of a gunshot wound in the head. A .22 caliber rifle was discovered near her bed.

Police said Mrs. January apparently shot herself while her adopted 12-year-old son, James, slept in a bed eight feet away. The boy was awakened by the rifle blast and discovered his mother's body.

Permit Is Granted For New Building

The Allegany County assessing department has granted Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Brant a permit to construct a $7,000 brick home on Lots 27, 28 and 29 of Robinette Addition in Election District 6. The building will be 24 by 40 feet and will be one story.

GENERAL JIMMY?—It will be Brig. Gen. James Stewart if the U. S. Senate has its way over the opposition of its only woman member, Sen. Margaret Chase Smith of Maine. She says she admires the 49-year-old movie star as an actor, but can't see him as an Air Force general. War-veteran Jimmy is now a colonel in the Air Force reserves and has been nominated for promotion.

Man Wins Blue Ribbons At Local Fair

The Cumberland Fair main exhibition hall, crowded as always with all manner of baked goods, canned fruit and vegetables, needlework, handicraft and Home-makers' Club theme booths, is usually considered a sort of little "women's world." But some of the top prizes did not go to women.

For the second consecutive year, Glenn Davis, 515 Dreyer Avenue, has won a blue ribbon and first prize for his coffee cake.

Last year Davis entered his coffee cake because a number of his friends and members of his family told him it was the best they had ever tasted. He entered it, and won a blue ribbon.

Encouraged, he carefully prepared and baked another coffee cake this year. Again the judges, probing, smelling and tasting, awarded his cake the blue ribbon.

And just to prove it was no accident, Mr. Davis is taking home another blue ribbon this year for his rusks, another past-try delicacy, and a red ribbon for his butter cake.

Mr. Davis, known throughout the county as vice president of the Allegany County Tuberculosis Society and annual chairman of the TB Christmas Seal Sale, is local manager of the Tri-State Coat and Towel Service. He also finds time to serve as an auxiliary policeman when needed, and is chairman of the Lions Club sight conservation committee.

Modest about his baking accomplishments, he says the art has evolved as a sort of hobby from putting around the kitchen at home. But since he has won twice, he said yesterday he will enter his coffee cake again next year to try to make it "three in a row."

'Pink Eyes'

In albinos, the eyes are pink because of the lack of black pigment causing the blood of the tiny vessels of the eye to show through the transparent parts of the eye. In normal eyes, the pink color is hidden by the color of the iris.

Miss Johns later met with Miss

Mary Rita Coyle and her committee. Miss Coyle, a registered nurse, is head of the recruitment committee for nursing service. At noon both O'Conner and Miss Johns conferred with Thomas B. Finan, disaster chairman. They discussed the disaster plan for the county. C. N. Sanner, board chairman and Mrs. Legge attended the noon meeting.

In the afternoon, Miss Johns met with Mrs. Raymond Boore, chairman of the home nursing committee and presented badges to 15 persons.

At that time three nurse's aides were presented 15 year bars. This morning O'Conner conferred with the nursing service committee and later with the Junior Red Cross co-chairmen, Miss Betty Flake and Mrs. John Robb.

FFA Livestock Judging Held At Cumberland Fair

The county and regional Future Farmers of America livestock judging was conducted yesterday at the Cumberland Fair, followed by the annual regional meeting of the organization.

A total of $30 in cash prizes was distributed to the winners from each county. Sixteen Allegany County boys participated, while 23 were present from Garrett County.

According to James H. House, vo-ag teacher at Oldtown High School and chairman of the FFA exhibits at the Fair, judging competition was exceptionally high this year and competition was keen. Five classes of animals were used in the judging, including Hampshire gilt hogs, Hampshire ewes, Hampshire lambs, Black Angus heifers and Hereford heifers.

The Allegany County winners are Bill Hout, Flintstone, first place $8; Robert Mallory, Oldtown, second, $7; Philip Carder, Oldtown, and Guy Stonestreet, tied for third, $5.50 each; and Dick Hofe, Little Orleans, fourth $4.

Garrett winners are David Bea-chy, $8, first; Dick Sisler and Floyd George tied for second place, $6.50 each; and for third place there was a four-way tie with James Savage, Ray Schlossnagle, Kenneth Durst and Joseph Durst, receiving $2.25 each. All of the Garrett winners are from Northern High School.

Kenneth Malone, Flintstone vo-ag teacher, is assistant chairman for the exhibition and competition, while other vo-ag teachers of the two counties serve as assistants. They include Marvin Callis and Lawrence Faith at Northern High, and Richard Bishol and George Lipscomb of Southern High. An interested spectator yesterday was Donald Thorne, vo-ag teacher at Fort Ashby High School.

The judging competition is a contest in which each boy pits his skill against that of the professional judges, to check ability in judging and grading livestock.

Following the competition the boys held their annual regional meeting. John Hommel presided. Officers elected include Samuel Glodofsky of Southern High, president; John Hommel, Northern High, vice president; Patrick Duckworth, Oldtown, secretary; and Barry Hoopengardner, Flintstone, treasurer-reporter.

Lawrence Faith, Northern vo-ag teacher, was elected regional chairman.

The boys decided to hold their land judging at Southern High at 10 a. m. on Saturday of Land Week, when that week is scheduled this fall. It was agreed that each school could enter two teams of four members each, with two alternates allowed each school.

The next annual regional meeting will be held at the Garrett County Fair, with livestock judging at the Cumberland Fair again next year.

A spring regional meeting is planned at the annual public speaking competition scheduled at Northern High School next May.

Chief Crazy Horse, the Sioux leader, and not Sitting Bull, was responsible for the Custer massacre.

ODEM, Tex. (AP)—Royce Reed uncovered scattered human bones on his farm in this coastal area where historians say cannibals once roamed.

Leg and arm bones were broken in short pieces as though hacked with a stone ax.

Cumberland Firemen Kept Busy With Calls

About half an hour later Central was called to the rear of the 900 block Frederick Street, where a small grass fire was extinguished.

West Side firemen filled in at Central each time firemen from that station were called out.

Hoffa: Teamsters' New Top Man?

Possessor of a ninth grade education, Jimmy Hoffa, now 44, is after biggest single union job in the world. Hoffa started working at 16, as a stockboy in a Detroit department store. Now he earns $21,000 a year . . .

. . . Hoffa's family is his pride and joy. Left is son, James, 15, his hunting companion. Right is Barbara Ann, 18, who was president of her high school class. Wife, Josephine, is known as "Jo" to thousands of Teamsters . . .

. . . in 1937, at the age of 24, he was president of Detroit Truck Drivers Local 299. By '46, above, Jimmy had risen to presidency of Michigan Conference of Teamsters. Hoffa glares at camera as his men picket a grocery . . .

. . . "I know where I'm going . . ." says Hoffa. And in September in Miami he's going after presidency of huge Teamsters Union, a job vacated by discredited Dave Beck, left, who gives Hoffa pat on back at Detroit dinner in '56.

MGK To Sell New Edsel

The Edsel-Ford Motor Company's new medium-priced car will be introduced in September—will be sold and serviced through M-G-K Motor Company, 221 Glenn Street, which today was announced as an authorized Edsel dealership by Emerson Planck, Washington district sales manager for Edsel Division.

Plans for a grand opening will be announced soon by D. G. Zembower, president of the new Edsel dealership. Zembower has been in the automobile business in Cumberland for 35 years.

M. H. Meyers has been named secretary-treasurer of the dealership. He will be general manager and Zembower will be service manager.

The dealership facilities have a total floor space of 15,000 square feet, including a fully equipped service area of 10,000 square feet.

Deer Park Farmer Displays Champion

William DeWitt of Deer Park, Garrett County, showed the grand champion Holstein cow at the Cumberland Fair this week, according to County Agent Joseph M. Steger.

The grand champion Holstein bull was shown by Doty Remsburg of Jefferson in Frederick County. Robert Appleman, a dairy cattle specialist at the University of Maryland, judged the Holsteins.

S. Braden King of Boonsboro in Washington County showed both the grand champion Jersey bull and cow. The judge was Albert Staggs of Westminster, a judge approved by the State Fair Board.

vested $250 million to introduce the new Edsel, Planck said. The new car—in four series and 18 models—will be marketed initially through an organization of some 1,200 to 1,500 dealers. Eventually, Edsel dealers will number between 2,500 and 3,000.

At left is a capsule look at James R. (Jimmy) Hoffa, the man, who, although he never drove a truck, will likely emerge as the head man of the Teamsters when the giant union holds its international convention in Miami, Fla., starting September 30. Probably the most controversial figure in labor today, the 44-year-old Hoffa was born in Brazil, Ind., Feb. 14, 1913. His father died when Jimmy was seven and eventually the family moved to Detroit where he took his first job at the age of 16. Hoffa's appearance before the Senate rackets committee, being nationally televised, will have considerable effect on his chances at Miami.

West Virginia Youth Enlists In Army Here

Blain H. McLaughlin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold McLaughlin, of Emoryville, W. Va., has enlisted in the Army for a two-year period.

M/Sgt. W. C. Hartley, recruiter in charge of the local office, said he will receive eight weeks basic training at Fort Jackson, S. C. He enlisted unassigned.

Sergeant Hartley is accepting applications for September enlistments.

West Virginia has a mean altitude of 1,500 feet, highest of any state east of the Mississippi River.

Judge Refuses To Free Man From Pen

Application for a writ of habeas corpus by a Washington County man who has been confined in the Maryland House of Correction since July 31, 1954, has been refused by Chief Judge George Henderson in an opinion filed in Allegany County Circuit Court.

William Ray Yantz stated in his petition that he was tried on two charges of assault by Trial Magistrate Jesse Shank in Washington County and was given consecutive terms of three and two years in the House of Correction July 31, 1954.

Yantz now alleges that Magistrate Shank was prejudiced against him.

Judge Henderson states that Yantz should have filed an affidavit with Magistrate Shank for removal of the case from his jurisdiction on grounds that he would not be given a fair and impartial trial.

The judge notes that he neither filed such an affidavit nor appealed to Circuit Court, as he had a legal right to do. He cannot now obtain his freedom on grounds of this alleged prejudice, the judge concluded.

Cumberland Tax Rate May Drop One Cent

Action Seen Possible Despite Increase In Funds Appropriated

A proposed city budget was whipped, or beaten, into shape at yesterday afternoon's meeting of the Mayor and Council, and under it the tax rate would drop one cent because of a decrease in the amount needed for debt service.

The tax rate for the past year ending June 30 was $1.58 for each $100 of assessed property.

Meeting Tomorrow

Under the proposal, the rate would drop to $1.57, but actually $110,500 more has been appropriated in the 1957-58 year for operating expenses than was in the past year.

A budget ordinance based on this proposal will be presented to the Mayor and Council for adoption at a special meeting tomorrow at 3:30 p. m.

The deadline for setting the levy is Sunday, but a dissenting vote could move action on the budget to Monday's regular meeting.

The council cannot spend any more than $1.25 of the rate for operating expenses. The amount needed for paying off the city's bonded debts has no ceiling.

More For Streets

But this year the debt service will be $3,202 while to be spent for operating expenses will be $1,248 under the proposed budget.

The $3,202 for debt service is tied with lowest since 1938-39, when the amount was $4,329. The other low figure, in the same amount was in 1953-54.

There is a $29,000 increase in the appropriation for streets and alleys and city officials today explained that is for the purpose of purchasing a new grader and oiler to replace equipment that is over 20 years old which has become a maintenance headache.

Money For Pumper

The Fire Department's increase of $23,200 includes a $12,000 down payment on a new pumper for Central Fire Station, and part of the remainder will go to extra work trucks needed when the department is short handed.

Fire Chief Virgil A. Parker pointed out in his request, which originally totaled $294,054, that the present pumper is over 20 years old, and is limited to 500 gallons per minute.

A 750-gallon per minute pumper has been advocated for the past seven years by the National Board of Fire Underwriters.

The Police Department originally asked for $299,368, including five probationary patrolmen and one policeman. This has been cut to $273,000. Last year's appropriation was $250,000.

No New Men

The increase will take care of the policeman plus a $6,857 capital outlay item for new cruisers which have been purchased. Slashed were the five new men. Police Chief R. E. Flynn reduced his cruiser maintenance item considerably for this year because the vehicles are new.

In all, the proposed budget would have $1,515,155 last year, compared to $252,155 last year, for operating expenses. This compares to $1,404,826 appropriated, and $1,321,328 actually spent last year.

Debt service will be $243,033 as compared to $252,155 last year.

Several factors affect the city favorably, one is the increase of the tax base from $73,000,000 in assessed property to $75,900,000.

Others include rising revenues from state funds, such as the income and auto taxes.

Items Compared

Listed below are the items in the budget, with the proposed allocation for this year, shown first, and what was actually spent in the year ended June 30, second.

Six Questioned In Morals Case

Five juvenile boys and a 20-year-old youth were scheduled for questioning this afternoon in the State's Attorney's office concerning a morals case involving a 12-year-old Sunnyside girl.

Sgt. William F. Baker, criminal investigator for the Maryland State Police, and Edwin R. Lilya, criminal investigator for Allegany County, will question the group of boys.

The case first developed earlier this week, and the girl was questioned yesterday by Baker and Lilya and she involved the group of six boys.

Stores Given Reminder On Clean Walks

The Street Department is contacting every downtown business operator regarding sidewalk cleanliness in compliance with the report of the grand jury of the April term of Allegany County Circuit Court.

That suggestion by the grand jury noted that the city should notify members of the Retail Merchants Association and other businessmen that they should take more pride in the appearance of the various shopping areas by flushing down the sidewalks in front of their stores each business day.

If the dirt and debris is swept, it is to be placed in a container instead of being shoved into the gutter, the jury said.

The grand jury also said that Street Commissioner William H. Buchholz should report to the October Grand Jury on compliance.

Buchholz said today the Street Department has contacted 360 firms in the area bounded by the two railroads, and from Knox and Smith Street to Williams Street.

A copy of the grand jury's directive has been handed to each establishment, and the representative of the firm is asked to sign a form that he has received this notice.

Buchholz said there have been 12 firms where representatives refused to sign the form, but he added that when he presents the complete lists of signers to the October grand jury, he will note the ones who have refused.

The notice simply contains the grand jury's suggestion, and adds that a greater effort is being requested by the city in regard to keeping the sidewalks of the business section clean.

The Buchholz notice also notes that a city ordinance calls for fines of from $5 to $100 for littering the streets.

Industrial Use Of Water Up For City

Income Also Advances According To Report For Last Fiscal Year

Consumption of city water by industrial customers increased in gallons used and in revenues for the fiscal year that ended June 30, William J. Edwards, city water commissioner, said today.

The total used by these industrial accounts was 1,924,205,500 gallons, an increase of 144,958,500 gallons over the 1955-56 period.

Much of the increased consumption has come from the North Branch Plant of Pittsburgh Plate Glass Company which has averaged about 10,000,000 gallons a month.

Income Also Up

The income was higher than last year, with the sales bringing in $192,582. This compares with $174,039 for 1955-56, and $136,586 for 1954-55.

The income showed a marked jump in the 1955-56 fiscal year after the department hiked the industrial rates 20 per cent.

Under the old rates, the income for the past year would have been only $158,678. But the 20 per cent extra accounts for $33,903.

Highest In Eight Years

The revenue this year is the highest in eight years, but in 1953, there was 2,224,430,000 gallons consumed.

Grinding Of Glass Nears At Area Plant

The Pittsburgh Plate Glass Company hopes to start using its twin-grinding machinery at the local plant sometime early in September as a result of preparations which are underway, according to R. M. Hainsfurther, plant manager.

Production of rough glass at Works 7 was stopped July 8 and work began on repair to various machines. Work was started on placing the plant in readiness to begin production of the plate glass using the entire facilities of the huge plant.

Hainsfurther said installation of the grinding machinery is about completed and early next month partial production will be started with the grinding process included. The $34,000,000 plant has been under construction for more than a year and some work is still being done.

The rough glass was manufactured for some months and shipped to the company's plant in Pennsylvania for the grinding and polishing process. The local plant's twin-grinding process is reported to be the most modern in the nation.

Locust Grove Man Injured At ABL

Ralph Whiteman, 27, of Locust Grove, is reported "improved" at Sacred Heart Hospital where he was admitted yesterday afternoon after being injured while working at the Allegany Ballistics Laboratory.

Attaches this morning said Whiteman is in "good" condition. He sustained a severe back injury when he fell approximately 15 feet from a scaffold while working on a cleaning job.

Native Of Area Elected American Cyanamid Head

A native of Allegany County and an outstanding bacteriologist has been elected president and chief executive officer of the American Cyanamid Company.

He is Dr. Wilbur G. Malcolm, Grand View on-the-Hudson, N.Y., son of the late William and Annie (Thomas) Malcolm, who lived at Moscow, near Barton.

Barton High Graduate

He was graduated from Barton High School in 1918 and received his bachelor's, master's and doctor's degrees in science from University of Maryland. He majored in bacteriology and minored in chemistry.

Dr. Malcolm was an instructor at the university, and worked in the U. S. Hygienic Laboratory in Washington, and was with the Massachusetts Health Department as a bacteriologist before joining Lederle Laboratories.

In 1934, he was made executive director of Lederle, which was then a wholly owned subsidiary of American Cyanamid.

Director Since 1944

In 1946 Malcolm became vice president and general manager of Lederle when the subsidiary became a division of parent company. He has been a director of American Cyanamid since 1944.

Dr. Malcolm became a vice president of American Cyanamid in charge of marketing, and was chairman of the commercial development committee; vice chairman of the budget, and patent and license committees, and a member of the corporation's finance committee.

Dr. Malcolm is married to the former Miss Gwendolene Bennie of Washington. They have two sons, Bryant and Peter, and one grandchild.

Two Injured In Car Crash North Of City

Two 17-year-old local youths are reported in "satisfactory" condition at Sacred Heart Hospital where they were admitted last night following a two-car accident.

Attaches said Frank Neff, 744 Maryland Avenue, and Raymond Valentine, 51 Blackiston Avenue, were admitted following a collision on U. S. Route 220, one mile north of Cumberland.

Neff sustained a fractured right ankle and multiple contusions, while Valentine suffered a severe laceration of his scalp.

Tic. Jack Browning and Trooper Carlton Lewis of the Maryland State Police, who investigated, said Neff and Valentine were passengers in a car driven by Charles L. McBride, 17, of RD 2, city.

State Police said the accident occurred about 7:55 p. m., eight-tenths of a mile north of the city limits on Bedford Road.

The vehicle being driven by McBride was proceeding north on Route 220 when the operator lost control of the car and it went into a skid on the wet pavement.

Police said the car struck an embankment on the west side of the highway, continued skidding, and hit a car being driven south on the highway by Keith Frederick Bowron, 28, of Umatilla, Fla., who apparently was not hurt.

Midwestern Musical Set At Fair Today

The feature of the Cumberland Fair tonight and tomorrow night will be the grandstand show of the Midwestern Hayride followed by fireworks.

On Saturday the Rock 'n' Roll Jamboree will begin at 8 p. m., with dancing permitted by couples who care to enter. A prize of $10 will be awarded the best couple and $5 to the second best.

Attendance at the Fair yesterday topped the 5,000 mark.

As added free grandstand attractions this afternoon, there was a tractor contest followed by a log-sawing competition.

From 5 to 6 p. m. there will be a free organ recital by Miss Jessie Griffith today. This concert will also be a repeat free attraction at 5 p. m.

Last night, the farm queens made their second appearance at the Fair, and they will appear prior to each grandstand show every night of the week. Fair patrons are given an opportunity to ballot on their choice for selection of Miss Fairgo, to be announced Saturday.

Harry J. Barton, Fair manager, also called attention to the flower show in the Jockey Club. He said a number of people seem unaware that the flower show is in progress, and judging of hundreds of entries has been completed.

In addition to the regular exhibition halls, where cattle, poultry and all kinds of farm produce and handicraft are displayed, he called attention to the scores of exhibits under the grandstand. There is no charge for any of these exhibits. The booths and displays under the grandstand this year surpass previous exhibits, he said.

Referendum Cost $4,879

Last Tuesday's referendum in which voters overwhelmingly defeated a proposed increase in the city's tax limitation for operating expenses cost $4,879.22, a report by City Clerk Wallace G. Ullery shows today.

Money for the election had been appropriated in the elections and registration fund for the 1956-57 fiscal year.

Ullery's report lists the following costs: Poll workers, $2,062; Allegany county Board of Election Supervisors and staff, $2,185.22; printing, $170; hauling of supplies, etc., $188; polling places, $90; janitor service at polling places, $100; advertising, $84.

Men Arrested On Auto Charge

Two Westminster men were apprehended yesterday afternoon by Maryland State Police on request from authorities of Hanover, Pa.

The men, Clarence Stahlman and Gerald Elwood Stremmel, were arrested by Trooper Ronald L. Davis on the Cash Valley Road at 3:30 p. m.

They are wanted by authorities from Hanover for unauthorized use of a motor vehicle.

State Police received the alert at 1 p. m. yesterday, and Trooper Davis made the arrest two hours later.

The men were lodged in the Allegany County Jail and this morning waived extradition before Chief Judge George Henderson.

They were returned to the Pennsylvania town at noon.

Slight Rainfall Falls In Section

Rainfall measuring .01 inch fell in the Cumberland area last night and did little more than wet the ground.

The forecast calls for fair weather tonight and tomorrow with little temperature change. Saturday is to be fair and a little warmer.

The temperature tonight is expected to range from 46 to 52 degrees. It was 53 here last night.

Price Of Milk May Advance In District

Increase Approved For Pennsylvania Competition Cited

An increase granted in nearby Pennsylvania to farmers by the Pennsylvania Milk Control Commission may possibly force local dairies to boost their prices.

The commission has ordered that home delivered milk in the Pittsburgh and nearby Pennsylvania area is to go up one cent a quart to 26 cents on September 1.

It will go to 25 cents in stores, but the price will be one cent less for milk bought in half-gallon containers.

Price Changes In Fall

A spokesman for a major dairy here pointed out that the Pennsylvania commission allows the cost of milk to go up one cent a quart in the fall, and then rules it must be decreased one cent a quart in the spring.

Here, however, the dairies keep the same price all year round. This has been 25 cents for both homogenized and regular, home delivered and at stores. Half-gallon milk containers costs 47 cents as compared to 49 cents in the Pittsburgh area.

Much milk used by local dairies is purchased in Pennsylvania, and the plants here have to compete with Pittsburgh, Philadelphia, Johnstown and Altoona dairies for each farmers production.

Pittsburgh dairies have been buying milk for years in Somerset and Bedford counties and recently a Philadelphia dairy put in a receiving station at Bedford. The milk is hauled by tank trailer over the Pennsylvania Turnpike to Philadelphia, three and a half hours away, in transportation time.

A Washington dairy has had a receiving station in Cumberland for nearly 15 years, and much milk is removed from this area by tank trailer.

A spokesman for a major dairy here said today that in addition to this situation in competitive buying the effects of the drought have been severe for most of the dairy farmers.

On Winter Feed

Many farmers have their herds on winter feed, hay and grain, as pasture lands have been burned brown.

Production has fallen off materially in the sections hit by the drought. Only Garrett County, which has had a little more rain, and is not so warm, has escaped major effects from the dry spell.

The spokesman said the situation is so critical that farmers in this section of Pennsylvania, Maryland and West Virginia are thinking seriously of applying for federal drought relief.

The one-cent increase for local buyers is problematical at this time, and is to be discussed by local milk processors before September 1.

In nearby Pennsylvania marketing areas, milk producers have been granted a seasonal increase of 49 cents a hundredweight to bring the cost to the processor $6.67.

Phone Group Organizes Credit Union

A new credit union has been formed here by employees of the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company.

The organization will serve employees of the firm in Allegany and Garrett counties and will operate under the name Wes Mar Telco Federal Credit Union.

A board of directors was elected at a recent meeting held at the Rubberworkers Union Hall on North Mechanic Street. Heading the 11-man board elected was Thomas E. Smith, who was named president. William V. Partlow was elected treasurer.

Other board members named were Michael L. Lindner, vice president; James P. Flanagan, secretary; John H. Klosterman, director; John E. Luttrell, chairman of the credit

Legislative Group Hits Land Buying

Criticizes SRC For Right-of-Way Purchases On Shore

SALISBURY, Md. (AP)—Members of the Legislative Council's roads committee have a bone to pick with the State Roads Commission, about buying up right-of-way they say is unneeded.

At a committee meeting here last night, State Sen. Fred Malkus, (D-Dorchester) cited a three-mile section of Maryland 16 between Church Creek and Taylor's Island in Dorchester County.

He disagreed when Edgar T. Bennett of Salisbury, an SRC member, said it was standard policy to insure sufficient rights-of-way for future dual-lane highways.

Del. D. Gordon Boone (D-Balto County) chimed in to say, "It's inconceivable that a dual road will be built in that section of the state."

Del. Boone, House majority leader, said a traffic count on that section of Maryland 16 showed 248 cars daily. He said there was a count of 5,000 daily on U. S. 50 between Easton and Cambridge—two of the Eastern Shore's largest cities—and the SRC has no plans to dualize that road.

Del. Russell Hickman (D-Worcester) made a similar contention about a 4.3-mile section of Maryland 254 between Powellville and Willards in Wicomico County.

Bennett said later that Norman Pritchett, chief SRC engineer, was the man who recommended that dual-lane right-of-way be purchased. District Engineer Charles Skirven of Salisbury, pressed for an opinion, said he didn't think the 150-foot right-of-way was necessary.

When Sen. John G. Turnbull (D-Balto County) jumped in to ask if Pritchett were a registered engineer, Bennett said he didn't know but assumed so.

No one else in the group seemed to know and Sen. Turnbull told Bennett that at the next SRC committee meeting he should "have someone there prepared to answer this question, and also have complete data on this road in Dorchester County."

Sen. Mary L. Nock (D-Wicomico) spoke up during the 3½-hour meeting to say that she didn't feel her county—although largest on the shore by population—is getting a fair share of the state road money.

She said SRC reports showed only $5,578,000 spent in Wicomico last year, against $6,821,000 in (Continued on Page 20)

Wall Street Hears...

NEW YORK (INS)—Wall Street hears:

A 4-month strike in one of its divisions may cut Avco net this year to about $1 from earlier estimates of $1.50.

Backlog of Martin Co. is now a little below the $810 million figure given out earlier this year. Incoming orders, however, are expected to top deliveries during the last half, restoring the backlog to around that figure. Guided missile orders continue to rise.

Several services recommending a switch into Procter & Gamble, drug issues—Warner-Lambert, Mead Johnson and American Home Products—among others being recommended for purchase.

Utilities believed headed for dividend increases include Consolidated Natural Gas, Middle South, Southwestern Public Service.

Market comment:—George G. Henry, of E. F. Hutton & Co.:—"The price action of utility shares has been disappointing ever since 30-year highs were established last May. Current relatively high money rates and the scarcity of money are the major reasons for this behavior. It is necessary for utilities to spend money for expansion with the expansion of the economy, regardless of the cost of capital."

Local Youth Named Conference Delegate William P. Sitter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Erwin B. Sitter, 400 Piedmont Avenue, has been named a delegate to the Youth Conference on Polio Vaccination next week in New York.

The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis has called the conference to obtain new ideas for encouraging polio vaccination among teen-agers. Some 50 youth leaders from all parts of the country will attend the conference, Sunday through Wednesday.

Each Type Meat Has Right Backyard Barbecue Sauce

HOUSTON, Tex. — Here are some barbecue sauces perfected by Dr. Ross Weisiger of Houston, a backyard cook extraordinaire and one who believes there should be a different sauce for each kind of meat.

Sauce For Beef

2 teaspoons allspice
2 to 3 teaspoons freshly ground black pepper
1 teaspoon oregano
2 teaspoons ground celery medium onion
4 cloves garlic, pulverized
8 teaspoons brown sugar
8 teaspoons salt
1 cup vinegar
1 cup oil or butter
1 cup beef stock or water
1 can tomato paste

Sauce For Chicken

2 to 3 teaspoons paprika
1 teaspoon thyme
1/2 teaspoon ground cloves
1 teaspoon marjoram
1 cup lemon juice (never use vinegar)
4 teaspoons salt
4 teaspoons brown sugar
1 teaspoon freshly ground black pepper
2 cups chicken stock (may use bouillon cubes if desired)

Sauce For Lamb

1/2 teaspoon ground cloves
1/2 teaspoon allspice
4 cloves garlic
1 cup oil
4 teaspoons salt
4 teaspoons brown sugar
2 cups good sherry (or 1 1/2 cup sherry and one-half cup bourbon)
1 teaspoon freshly ground black pepper

In all sauces, ingredients are first put into blender, then into a saucepan and cooked very slowly about 30 minutes to blend flavors. All are best made a day ahead of time.

All meats are cooked very slowly, basting once in the beginning with the sauce and then again only when they become dry. There should be no visible evidence of the sauce when the meat is served.

Ever serve celery root? Just peel and dice it, then cook rapidly in boiling salted water until just tender. Drain and serve hot with butter or cold with mayonnaise.

Pears Add Elegance To Chops

A PEAR BAKED IN CURRY SAUCE enhances a luncheon lamb chop when served with steamed rice, flaked coconut and salted peanuts.

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

How elegant can a lamb chop be? Very, when you serve it with a fresh Bartlett pear baked in a curry sauce, and accompany the meat and fruit with steamed rice, flaked coconut and salted peanuts.

To add a last touch, make frills of white paper and foil to slip onto the end bones of rib chops, and you'll be ready for a party. But the combination of food tastes delicious with or without the frills; you needn't bother with them if you don't enjoy this sort of fancy work.

Both males and females liked this main dish when we offered it, so don't hesitate to serve it to four couples. It's also a fine dish for a "ladies only" luncheon.

Curried Baked Pears

Ingredients: 1/4 cup sugar, 1/2 cup unsweetened pineapple juice, 1/2 lemon (1 tablespoon), salt, 2 teaspoons curry powder, 4 ripe Bartlett pears, 1 tablespoon butter or margarine, 1 or 2 thin slices lemon.

Method: Put sugar, pineapple juice, lemon juice, a few grains of salt and curry powder in a small saucepan. Bring to simmering, stirring several times so curry powder won't be lumpy. Halve pears; remove skin. Remove seeds by scooping them out with a half-teaspoon round-bowl measuring spoon; cut out stem structure with small sharp knife. Place pears in a shallow baking dish — a heat-resistant glass dish (6 by 10 by 2 1/2 inches) is fine. Pour curry mixture over pears. Put a dot of the butter in the cavity of each pear. Bake in moderate (350 degrees) oven, basting several times, about 15 minutes. Cover (with foil if you like) and bake another 5 minutes or until pears are tender but hold their shape. (These baking times are approximate because they will vary with the ripeness of the pears; watch fruit and adjust time.) Remove pears to serving platter or individual dinner plates; pour sauce into small bowl; float one or two thin lemon slices on top of sauce as a garnish. Makes 4 to 8 servings — one or two pear halves for each portion.

Chop Frills

Fold a sheet of foil (4 inches wide and long enough to make as many small sections as you have chops) in half lengthwise; do the same with a sheet of white paper of identical size. Slip the folded foil over the folded white paper, and starting at the folded edge, make slashes with scissors (each 1 1/2 inches long and 1/4 inch apart) through the double folds along the entire length of paper. Carefully fold the white sheet inside out, holding so that the foil adheres to the inside. Cut your folded sheets into sections wide enough to go around each chop bone; fold a frilled section around each bone and secure with cellophane tape. Fluff up the frill end so that the silver shows through. Buy rib lamb and have meatman cut off about 7 1/2 inches from the end of each rib bone.

Prepared Sauce Has Many Uses

Prepared tomato spaghetti sauce is convenient to have on hand for jiggite dishes. Here are suggestions for using the meatless mushroom variety of sauce.

1. Heat the sauce and spoon into shirred egg dishes. Break 1 or 2 eggs into each dish. Sprinkle well with grated Parmesan or Romano cheese. Bake in a slow (325 degrees) oven until eggs are set as desired.
2. Add drained chunks of tuna fish to the sauce and heat; serve with spaghetti.
3. Cube leftover roast beef and add to the sauce; heat and serve over steamed rice.
4. The sauce may be spooned over fish fillets or steaks that are to be baked. Or the sauce may be heated separately and served with broiled fillets or steak.
5. Heat the sauce and serve with meat loaf. Or add some of the sauce to the meat mixture when you are preparing the loaf.
6. Serve the heated sauce over sliced hard-cooked eggs or with a puffy omelet.

Count on having 1 to 1 1/4 cups of syrup from a large (No. 2 1/2) can of peaches. When you are serving the peach halves as a meat garnish, use the syrup as the basis of a sauce for a pudding.

Vanilla Frosting

Melt 1/4 cup butter or margarine in a saucepan large enough for mixing frosting. Gradually add 2 1/4 cups sifted confectioners' sugar alternately with 3 to 4 tablespoons light cream or evaporated milk and 1 tablespoon light corn syrup. Stir in 1/2 teaspoon pure vanilla extract.

Use a heavy straight-sided saucepan when making candy.

Today's Lunch Line

Today's suggestion for lunch is a pleaser for all, from the toddler to dad. Salmon sandwich — ample servings of tomato juice cocktail, and canned apple sauce dribbled with marshmallow cream for dessert is the menu. To make the extra-good salmon sandwich filling, mix drained and flaked canned salmon with diced cucumber, lemon juice, onion salt and mayonnaise.

POSES PROBLEM—Britain's Colonial office was faced with another difficult problem when reports from Georgetown, British Guiana, indicated that Communist Leader Cheddi Jagan, above, was being swept back into power as Chief Minister. Jagan was deposed as Chief Minister in 1953 for trying to foist communism on the colony, Britain's only possession on the South American continent.

Beef Prices Stay High, Vegetables Listed Lower

By The Associated Press

Housewives checking supermarket advertisements this week will find a wide variety of meats offered at bargain prices.

Roast beef, however, is conspicuous by its absence, at least in the more expensive cuts. Beef prices were described as "firm," meaning at a high level, by one chain meat specialist and the Agriculture Department says they'll stay that way for awhile.

In this situation, stores turned to the old budget standby, chuck roast. Fryers and broilers, lamb, turkeys and spot offerings of spare ribs, bacon, tongue and liver also are featured.

Coast Areas Feature Fish

Stores in coastal regions offer flounder, lobster, shrimp, swordfish, halibut and other finny delicacies.

High prices for beef—as well as lamb and pork—are due mostly to smaller supplies for slaughter, and it is expected by Agriculture Department officials that livestock production and slaughter will continue below 1956's very high levels for some time.

The news wasn't all bad for the housewife this week—wholesale food prices are headed down again, and fruit and vegetable production is at peak levels in most growing areas.

This means that fresh fruits and vegetables are available from nearby fields and orchards.

Outstanding vegetable selections are bunched beets, onions, tomatoes, potatoes, pascal and golden heart celery, peppers, cabbage and corn. Cauliflower and topped carrots also are good buys, while spinach and broccoli are rated as no better than moderate in price.

Lettuce is still very expensive, because of extended poor weather in chief growing areas.

Grapes Now Plentiful

Seedless green grapes from California are flooding the markets, along with the round, blue-black Reverses and Red Malagas. Plums in a wide range of colors and tastes are moderately priced and watermelons, on the bargain list for most of the summer, are still available.

Cantaloupes headed higher in price, while honeydew melons were lower but still comparatively expensive.

The first fall apples, a reminder that summer is nearing its end, are coming in from Eastern orchards at moderate prices. Citrus fruit is mostly in the moderate class, except for Florida lemons, which are plentiful and cheap.

Sauce Boosts Staples' Appeal

A TANGY SAUCE poured over such pantry shelf standbys as canned salmon lends a special appeal.

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

A delicious sauce gives special appeal to a pantry shelf standby such as canned salmon. Borrowed from the Scandinavian cuisine, this one combines sugar, mustard and vinegar to give piquant flavor.

Serve this main dish for lunch or supper with stuffed baked potatoes and cooked carrot strips doused with a mixture of melted butter or margarine, lemon juice and minced fresh dill. A salad for this menu will be particularly good if it is made of crisp greens and cucumber slices.

Salmon Piquant

Ingredients: 2 cans (½ pound each) salmon, 2 teaspoons cornstarch, 1 tablespoon plus 2 teaspoons sugar, 1 tablespoon plus 2 teaspoons dry mustard, ¼ teaspoon salt, ¼ teaspoon white pepper, 3 tablespoons cider vinegar, 2 tablespoons plus 1 teaspoon butter or margarine.

Method: Drain salmon, reserving liquid in a measuring cup; add enough water to salmon liquid to make ¾ cup. Place salmon, leaving each can in a whole piece, in a baking dish; an 8-inch heat-resistant glass pie plate is fine. Stir cornstarch, sugar, mustard, salt and pepper together thoroughly in a small saucepan. Gradually stir in the vinegar and combined water and salmon liquid so there are no lumps, add butter. Stir constantly over moderate heat until slightly thickened and boiling. Pour sauce over salmon in baking dish; bake in moderate (350 degrees) oven until fish is heated through—15 to 20 minutes. Makes 4 servings.

Kitchen Notes

Do you sometimes serve creamed salmon as a luncheon dish? Add lemon juice and drained capers to the cream sauce for a fillip.

Plain cold canned salmon is delectable when it is served with a sauce of whipped cream seasoned with salt, white pepper, lemon juice, sugar and drained bottled or finely-grated fresh horseradish. A salad of watercress and paper-thin slices of cucumber is a "must" with this.

Quick Lunch

Clam Chowder Pilot Crackers
Phyl's Corn Griddle Cakes
Crisp Bacon
Maple Syrup Beverage
Phyl's Corn Griddle Cakes

Ingredients: 1 package (10 ounces) quick-frozen whole-kernel corn, milk, 1 cup pancake mix, 1 egg, 1 tablespoon butter or margarine (melted).

Method: Cook corn according to package directions in very lightly salted water. Drain liquid from corn into measure; add enough milk to make 1 cup. Pour into mixing bowl; add pancake mix, egg and melted butter. Stir enough to moisten dry ingredients well; batter will be slightly lumpy. Stir in drained corn. Use about ¼ cup of the batter for each pancake and bake on hot lightly greased griddle or in electric skillet until golden brown; turn and brown on other side. Serve at once. Makes 10 to 12 griddle cakes.

Watch the salt when you are making a fondue because cheese varies in the amount of salt it contains.

Jellied Meat Loaf Is Main Dish

Cool, jellied meat-loaf mold is a satisfying entree for a summer supper. Grind leftover beef rib or pot roast, season it with pickle relish and pimiento and stir the mixture into gelatin. Unfold on salad greens and garnish with radish roses.

Jellied Meat Loaf

1 envelope unflavored gelatin
¼ cup cold water
1½ cups hot bouillon, consommé or meat stock
2 tablespoons lemon juice
1 teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon onion juice
1 hard-cooked egg, sliced
2 cups ground cooked beef roast
1 large stalk celery, ground
¼ cup sweet pickle relish
2 tablespoons diced pimiento

Soften gelatin in water, add bouillon, and stir until dissolved. Add lemon juice, salt and onion juice. Cool until mixture starts to thicken. Lightly oil a one-quart ring mold, 6 custard cups, or a small loaf pan.

Spoon a thin layer of gelatin mixture into the bottom of the mold. Arrange egg slices in gelatin layer; chill. Mix remaining gelatin mixture with ground meat celery, pickle relish, and pimiento; gently spoon over egg slices. Chill in refrigerator until firm. Six servings.

Family Dinner

A meat loaf that's a little different for a change.

Beef and Sausage Loaf
Noodles Spinach
Salad Bread Tray
Fresh Fruit Beverage

Ingredients: 1 pound ground lean beef chuck, 1 pound bulk-style pork sausage, 1 egg, ¼ cup fine dry bread crumbs, 1 medium-sized raw potato (peeled and finely grated), ½ teaspoon salt, pepper, 1 small garlic clove (peeled and crushed).

Method: Mix together the beef sausage and egg with a wide fork or your fingers. Mix in thoroughly the bread crumbs, grated potato, salt, pepper to taste and garlic. Pack into a loaf pan (about 9 by 5 by 2 ½ inches). Bake in a moderate (350 degrees) oven 1 hour. Drain off fat and turn out. Sprinkle lightly with paprika and garnish with parsley if desired. This loaf has to be cut carefully while it is hot; it slices beautifully when cold. Thin slices of the leftover loaf are delicious reheated in a little butter in a skillet. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

Ingredients: Ripe tomatoes, minced onion, minced parsley, French dressing.

Method: Cut a thin slice from each end of tomatoes. (Save ends to add to stock or stew.) Cut stem ends out of tomatoes. Slice about ¼ inch thick. Layer tomatoes in serving dish, sprinkling each slice with onion and parsley and drizzling with French dressing. Refrigerate from ½ to 1 hour.

Note: For French dressing, use two or three tablespoons of olive oil to every tablespoon of wine vinegar (white or red) and season with salt, pepper, prepared mustard and a suspicion of sugar.

Spread a thin flat sponge cake with softened ice cream; roll up, wrap in aluminum foil and freeze. Allow to stand at room temperature about an hour before slicing.

Be sure to make a round of your baking-powder biscuit dough before kneading it. Helps in shaping biscuits neatly!

Eggs, Cheese Potato Scallop In Summer

For a delicious summer luncheon attraction, easy to prepare, and combining eggs and potatoes, try serving egg, cheese and potato scallop, recommended by Department of Agriculture home economists. This recipe makes four servings.

1 cup thin white sauce
1 tablespoon minced parsley
2 or 3 medium-sized cooked potatoes, sliced
1 cup shredded cheese
4 to 6 hard-cooked eggs, sliced
Salt and pepper
Soft bread crumbs

For a thin white sauce use 1 cup milk, 1 tablespoon flour, 1 tablespoon fat and 1/4 teaspoon salt. Melt fat and blend in the flour to make a smooth mixture.
Add salt. Then add milk slowly and cook over low heat, stirring constantly, until thickened.

Combine white sauce and parsley. Place alternate layers of potatoes, cheese, and eggs in a greased baking dish, sprinkling each layer lightly with salt and pepper. Add the white sauce.
Top with bread crumbs. Bake at 375° F. (moderate oven) fifteen to twenty minutes.

Skillet Corn Pudding

Can you believe it—corn pudding and no oven needed? It's cooked in a skillet atop the range and a super dish. Cook 4 slices bacon to crispness, remove and drain. Beat 4 eggs until fluffy and add 1/2 cup light cream, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon pepper and a can (16 to 17 oz.) cream style corn. Mix and pour into the hot bacon fat. Cook, stirring, until the eggs are firm. Serve sprinkled with crumbled bacon.

Three-Minute Sausage Saves Time In Kitchen

By MARTHA LOGAN

Plump brown and serve sausages and a spicy pineapple sauce spooned over crispy waffles make appetites sit up and take notice.
It's a tasty combination for breakfast, lunch or brunch as the case may be. Even though summer-time means vacation time for many activities, mealtime comes around regularly. However, by taking advantage of quick-to-fix foods, the busy homemaker can increase her time-off from cooking.

Convenience foods should be more than just easy to prepare.
They should have fine flavor and high quality too. Brown and serve sausage which carries a well-known packer's brand scores on all counts. The sausage links have a "just right" blend of seasonings and they are precooked with infra-red heat. This means plenty of eating satisfaction with a minimum of bother. The brown and serve sausage require only 3 minutes heating before they are served.

Combining pineapple sauce with brown and serve sausage takes only a matter of minutes.
The waffles on which it is served maybe baked right at the table or, if you have some in the freezer, heat briefly in the toaster just before serving. Should your family be pancake fans, hot cakes, too, would be a tempting choice for the meal.

Sausage With Pineapple Sauce
Yield: 5 to 6 servings
1 package brown 'n serve sausage
8 1/2 ounce can pineapple tidbits Water
2 tablespoons cornstarch
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
2 tablespoons sugar
1/2 teaspoon lemon juice
Waffles or pancakes

Brown the sausage in a skillet according to the directions on the package. Drain the tidbits. Add water to the juice to make 1 1/2 cups liquid. Add liquid, cornstarch and cinnamon to sausage.
Heat and stir until thickened, about 5 to 7 minutes. Then add pineapple, sugar and lemon juice.

Heat. Serve over waffles or pancakes.

Sausage With Rice

Yield: 5 servings
sausage
1/4 cup chopped onion
1/4 cup chopped celery
1/2 cup chopped green pepper
2 tablespoons chopped
pimiento
1/4 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
1 cup milk
Mix together all ingredients except sausage and milk. Spoon into a pan, 11 x 7 x 1 1/2 inches.
Level with a spatula. Top with sausage. Pour milk over mixture, being sure to moisten each sausage. Bake in a moderate oven (375° F.) 25 to 30 minutes.

SPRINGTIME PINEAPPLE

Ingredients: 1 large ripe pineapple, sugar, 2 small bananas, 1 pint basket strawberries (washed and hulled).

Method: Cut pineapple in half lengthwise through plume. With a sharp knife — a curved serrated grapefruit knife is fine — cut around inside so you can remove pulp and have a fairly thin walled shell. Cut core from pineapple and discard; dice remaining pineapple—there should be about 4 cups. Mix pineapple with sugar to taste, cover and chill.
Wrap pineapple shells in waxed paper and refrigerate. At serving time, slice or dice bananas and halve or quarter strawberries, leaving some of them whole. (Cut strawberries may need to be mixed with sugar to sweeten.) Gently mix pineapple, bananas and halved strawberries; fill pineapple shells with mixture. Garnish with whole strawberries and serve. Makes 8 to 10 servings.

QUICK MACARONI AND TUNA

Ingredients: 1 can (15 1/4 oun-

1 can (6 ounces) flaked tuna, 3 to 4 teaspoons finely grated onion (pulp and juice), 1/4 cup chopped green pepper, 1/4 cup grated cheese.

Method: Turn macaroni with cheese into 8-inch glass pie plate; use either the regular plate or the deepest one of this

Peach Drinks Refreshing

Peaches are in season. Every homemaker wants to use this delectable fruit in every possible way — to eat in the hand, of course, and in pies, cobblers and shortcakes. Peaches used with other fruits in a fruit cup, or sliced alone, take on extra zest when a little cold ginger ale is poured over them.

making delicious summer drinks.
For a quick peach soda, place two or three tablespoons crushed, sweetened peaches in a tall glass, add a scoop of ice cream and fill the glass with cold pale dry ginger ale.

Here are two peach drinks everyone will enjoy.

Minted Peach Soda
1 pint peppermint ice cream
2 1/2 cup crushed peaches

Pale dry ginger ale Divide ice cream among 4 tall glasses. Add 1 tablespoon crushed peaches to each glass. Fill glasses with ice cold pale dry ginger ale. Stir gently to mix.

Lemon Surprise
2 cups sweetened crushed peaches
1 pint lemon ice
1/2 pint heavy cream
Lemon soda
Divide crushed peaches and lemon ice among 8 tall glasses.
Add 2 tablespoons heavy cream to each glass. Fill glasses with ice cold lemon soda. Stir gently to mix.

Mix cooked green peas (drained and cooled) with minced onion, strips of pimiento and mayonnaise. Serve in lettuce cups for a different and delicious salad.

Rice Croquettes Served With Fish

Rice Croquettes are good served alongside of fish or chicken.
In the top of a double boiler, combine 2 cups of cooked rice,
3 tablespoons of hot cream and 2 tablespoons of butter. Season with salt and pepper to taste, and add a tablespoon of chopped parsley. Add 2 beaten eggs and cook over hot water, stirring till mixture begins to thicken.
Spread in a dish and let cook.
Shape croquettes like logs; roll in cracker crumbs, dip in egg and then crumbs again. Set in refrigerator to firm for a few hours, then fry in deep fat at
en brown.

Blackburn, through his re-enlistment has extended his tour to ten years of active service. He is one of 13 original members who comprised the Keyser Guard unit when it was formed on March 27, 1948. Blackburn had prior service in the United States Army during World War II, and served in the Pacific and Far East campaigns. He was a member of Battery C, when the unit was called to active federal service during the Korean crisis and also saw service in occupation duty in Germany.

Capt. Wilt also announced that Sgt. Charles B. Wotring has re-enlisted for one year. Wotring has completed his initial three-year enlistment.

Loan Society Post Goes To C. G. Meehan

FROSTBURG — Charles G. Meehan, retired Army colonel, has been appointed acting secretary of the Equitable Savings and Loan Society, succeeding the late Fred W. Boettner, who died in 1956.

The society, the oldest financial institution in the county outside of Cumberland, has been operated by a committee of officers and directors since Boettner's death. The new acting secretary assumed his duties on Monday.

Colonel Meehan has had a long-standing acquaintance with this community through his marriage to Miss Diana Richmond, daughter of Mrs. Susan Colborn Richmond. He resides at 51 West Main Street with his wife and three children, having moved there upon his retirement from active duty in August 1954. He has been a member of the Equitable Society and local taxpayer for many years previously, having planned his retirement to Frostburg some years earlier.

Meehan is a graduate of the United States Military Academy at West Point and recently obtained his master's degree in mathematics at Purdue University.

Col. Meehan has seen active military duty in all parts of the United States as well as many areas of the European Theatre during World War II. In addition, he held responsible administrative posts in the military government of occupied Germany, Italy and Austria as well as in regular military organization. His command at retirement was post commander and chief of staff of the Command General Staff College, Fort Leavenworth, Kans.

The Equitable Society was established in 1891 to provide convenient financing for home owners and would-be home owners of modest means. It has continued successfully in that field 66 years with but four secretaries. The Equitable is a member of the Maryland League of Building Loan Associations and of Maryland State Chartered Associations.

Somerset Native To Mark 100th Birthday Tomorrow

SOMERSET — One of the nation's oldest theatergoers will mark her 100th birthday tomorrow. She is Mrs. Martha (Miner) Gorsuch, of RD 5.

The centenarian-to-be, an ardent movie fan, also is one of the few women in America drawing a Civil War widow's pension.

Mrs. Gorsuch was born August 23, 1857, in the village of Hexabarger, near Confluence, daughter of Charles and Adeline Miner. She spent much of her early life on a Turkeyfoot area farm. She was married on her birthday in 1877 to Richard Gorsuch, a farmer and Civil War veteran. Her husband died in 1912.

Since that time Mrs. Gorsuch

Her principal hobbies are sewing and rug-making, in addition to attending movies. Local theater operators believe she is probably the oldest regular theater fan in the country.

She is the mother of 10 children, five of whom are living. Besides Mrs. Cecelia Zearfoss, they are John Gorsuch, Connellsville; Carl Gorsuch, Reading; Miss Josie Gorsuch, Bartow, Fla., and Mrs. Edna Hyatt, Confluence.

Income Tax Imposed For School Help

BEDFORD—A harassed East St. Clair Township school board became the first in Bedford County to impose an income tax for school purposes.

And a board member made the prediction that another few years will see similar taxes adopted by many other school districts in the county.

Following a lengthy session at the East St. Clair school, the three members present from the five-man board voted unanimously to impose a one per cent tax on all incomes in the district for the 1957-58 school year.

If the number of citizens present to protest the new tax was any indication of opposition to it, there was little. There were only 11 of the township's 1323 citizens present as spectators at the meeting. Of that number, four or five spoke out in opposition to a wage tax. Among the alternative money-raising plans they offered: the holding of games parties in the school buildings and increasing the per capita tax already in force.

Board members present at the meeting were Bruce Nunemaker, president; Samuel Way, secretary, and Clayton Hoover. Absent were Harold Way and Walter Cook, who was ill.

Way acted as spokesman for the board in defending the proposed tax. He outlined the critical condition in which the school district finds itself. It started the year with a debt of $6,000 and expects that figure to jump to $20,000 by the end of the year.

Total planned school expenditures for East St. Clair, Way said, are $155,297 for this year. Total anticipated receipts (including state aid) are only $132,180.

"We've got to find the money to bridge that gap," the secretary said. "We have investigated every possibility and the wage tax is the only one we consider workable."

Way said he understood many other school districts in the area are also in precarious financial condition and predicted that another year or two will see local income taxes widely adopted.

Asked why the township residents were not allowed to vote on the proposed income tax, Way said the board was not required under state law to call for a referendum.

Nunemaker defended the tax as fair. "We don't have anything else left in our township to tax," he said.

The principal opposition to the tax seemed to stem from doubt on the part of those present that it could be fairly collected.

Harold Henderson, one of the citizens present, did much of the talking. "I'm a wage earner," he said. "I'm willing to pay my share as long as I know that the farmers and other self employed people will declare their full earnings and pay their share too."

Henderson asked how it was proposed to ensure fair payments by everyone. The board did not give details as to its collection plan.

Made By Westrnport Council Westernport Council Places

WESTERNPORT—The Town of Westernport may install water meters. An order for 50 meters was placed verbally with E. E. Reutan, salesman for the Neptune Meter Company of New York City, at a meeting of the Mayor and Commissioners last night. The town must confirm the order within 30 days to make the order legal.

If the town purchases the water meters, the first ones will be installed for commercial users of water. The meters will cost $29.24 each, including couplings, and has a 32 per cent discount if paid for in 30 days. Reutan also agreed to give the town the same discount for six months if additional meters are purchased, even though they may raise in price.

Reutan stated that towns and cities have found flat rates to water consumers results in a tremendous loss in water, such as Westernport is now experiencing.

Consumers do not have leaky faucets and other fixtures repaired when they are on a flat rate, Reutan explained. It has also been found that the installation of meters is the way to provide plenty of water for the water consumers at all times, and still have plenty of water for emergencies, he continued.

City officials will discuss rates to be charged if the meters are installed. Mayor Okey E. Michael said it would take the town about five years to put water meters in for its 1,320 customers. This would be done by installing so many each year.

Cumberland, Hagerstown and Frostburg has installed this type of water meter, and the company also has sold them to a number of cities in West Virginia.

Horace P. Whitworth Sr., town attorney, conferred with the officials about several matters. It was agreed that Marshall Jones be given a tap free for permitting the Foundry Alley sewer to run under his property to empty into Georges Creek.

Whitworth stated there were two property owners for the land for the proposed six-inch water service line to be run from Main Street and Oak View Drive up State St. straddles the Maryland-Delaware state line.

Richard E. Cullen, attorney for the Wicomico County Commissioners and representing Delmar businessmen, said various town officials had been trying to get improvements to the street for three years without success.

When Bennett said the street was not in the 12-year-road program, Boone asked why it couldn't be done on maintenance. Skirven said the job had grown too big for maintenance.

Boone threw up his hands and said: "That's no excuse. You, Sen. Bennett, should do something about it."

Romney Storage Plant For Fruit Opens Tomorrow

ROMNEY—The Fruit Growers Cooperative Storage Association's plant north of Romney on Route 28, is opening to serve the fruit growers of the area tomorrow morning.

The plant will receive peaches and refrigerate them over the long Labor Day weekend when it is expected that the flow of fruit will be interrupted or stopped in some areas.

Over the past three months the storage personnel has been cleaning, repairing and replacing the refrigeration machinery, and painting large areas of the plant.

The refrigeration has been turned on and the cooling of the plant is under way. The latest report was that the temperature was dropping steadily.

The plant has been fortunate this year to have the services of Roy R. Baker, sales engineer of Frick Refrigeration Company, during the early cooling of the plant. Baker has been assisting and advising the plant personnel on the starting of the machinery.

Ed Buckbee, manager, expresses the opinion that every one is welcome to make use of the refrigeration service so as to market their fruit in better condition and a more orderly manner.

If you plan to store fruit, Buckbee said, notify the plant whenever possible so that the manager can give the quickest, possible service.

Korean Bonus Forms Set Up In W. Virginia

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP)—The Department of Veterans Affairs explained today its method of determining how much overseas time a Korean veteran can apply toward his state bonus.

Some veterans have questioned the department's earlier statement that it must go to official service records to find out how much overseas time a veteran has.

Frank Caudy, chief bonus deputy, said that discharges from service no longer show the amount of overseas time. He added that separation papers, while showing such time, do not include the dates during which the veteran served overseas.

Foreign service can increase the amount of the bonus payments West Virginia veterans receive by as much as $100. However, foreign and domestic duty must be within the 37 months between June 27, 1950 and July 27, 1953.

He said that if a veteran's total time in service came within those 37 months that no further verification of records would be needed before paying him a bonus.

In some other cases, it may be possible to deduce from the dates on the separation form that a veteran served a particular amount of time during the 37-month period.

"Apricot" Tree Grows Peaches

SILVER SPRING, Md. (AP)—Five years ago Sydney Mendelsohn ordered some fruit trees from an Illinois firm that later was convicted of mail fraud.

After several weeks five trees arrived—all about eight inches tall, and marked plum, apricot, pear, cherry and apple.

The plum seedling didn't grow and the apple tree was barren. But Tuesday 9-year-old Paul Mendelsohn took some peaches from what was supposed to be the apricot tree to the Montgomery County fair and won first prize.

Rademacher-Patterson Title Fight Tonight

'Cinderella' Underdog In Fistic Ball With Champ

By JACK HEWINS

SEATTLE — This is the day the self-made Cinderella man, Pete Rademacher, goes to the fistic ball with King Floyd Patterson to learn if his dreams are made of dust or diamonds.

Most ringwise observers have protested that the big, genial farm boy is leading himself to a slaughter. It is the first heavyweight title fight between an amateur and a professional.

The fight will not be broadcast. The entire stadium is likely to be crammed to its 25,000 capacity with $400,000 worth of paying customers. Many of these disagree with the expert opinion that Rademacher's survival will be short under the impact of the champion's slashing fists.

A large proportion of the crowd comes from Washington's Yakima Valley, where Pete grew up, or from Georgia, where he was an Army lieutenant when he became Olympic heavyweight champion. They are for Rademacher to the last man and feel in their hearts he can do what very few believe is possible and which never has been done before: step from the peasant world of amateurism into the throne room of fistic.

Rademacher himself says: "If I didn't think I could whip Floyd Patterson I wouldn't be here." His former college boxing coach, El Deeter of Washington State, says Pete can win, "but he must do it in five rounds or less. I don't believe he'll be able to pace himself beyond that."

Less than a month ago Patterson, 22, cut down Hurricane Jackson in New York. The referee stopped the fight in the 10th round. Tonight the champion will meet a much larger and stronger opponent — and one Cus D'Amato, Patterson's manager, has called more skillful than the tamed Hurricane.

String 30 Knockouts

Rademacher, 28, goes into the ring with a weight advantage of some 25 pounds. The 210-pounder has almost spindly legs for such a large man, but he is massive in torso, shoulders and biceps. He can hit—his string of more than 30 knockouts attests to that.

He can also be hit. He has been knocked out twice in his amateur career of 79 bouts. He has been knocked down in others—and won them. Those who have watched his training-camp workouts expect big Pete to force the fight, to keep atop the champion and lessen the force of Patterson's sharp jabs and vicious combinations.

Ex-Floyd Opponent Gives Pete Chance

SEATTLE — A small minority think amateur king Pete Rademacher has a chance tonight when he fights champion Floyd Patterson for the heavyweight crown.

One of those who lists himself in the group is Joe Gannon, an inspector for the Washington, D. C. Boxing Commission.

Joe, who won 45 of 48 pro bouts, can't be listed, however, as a neutral observer even though he possesses first hand knowledge of Patterson's ability.

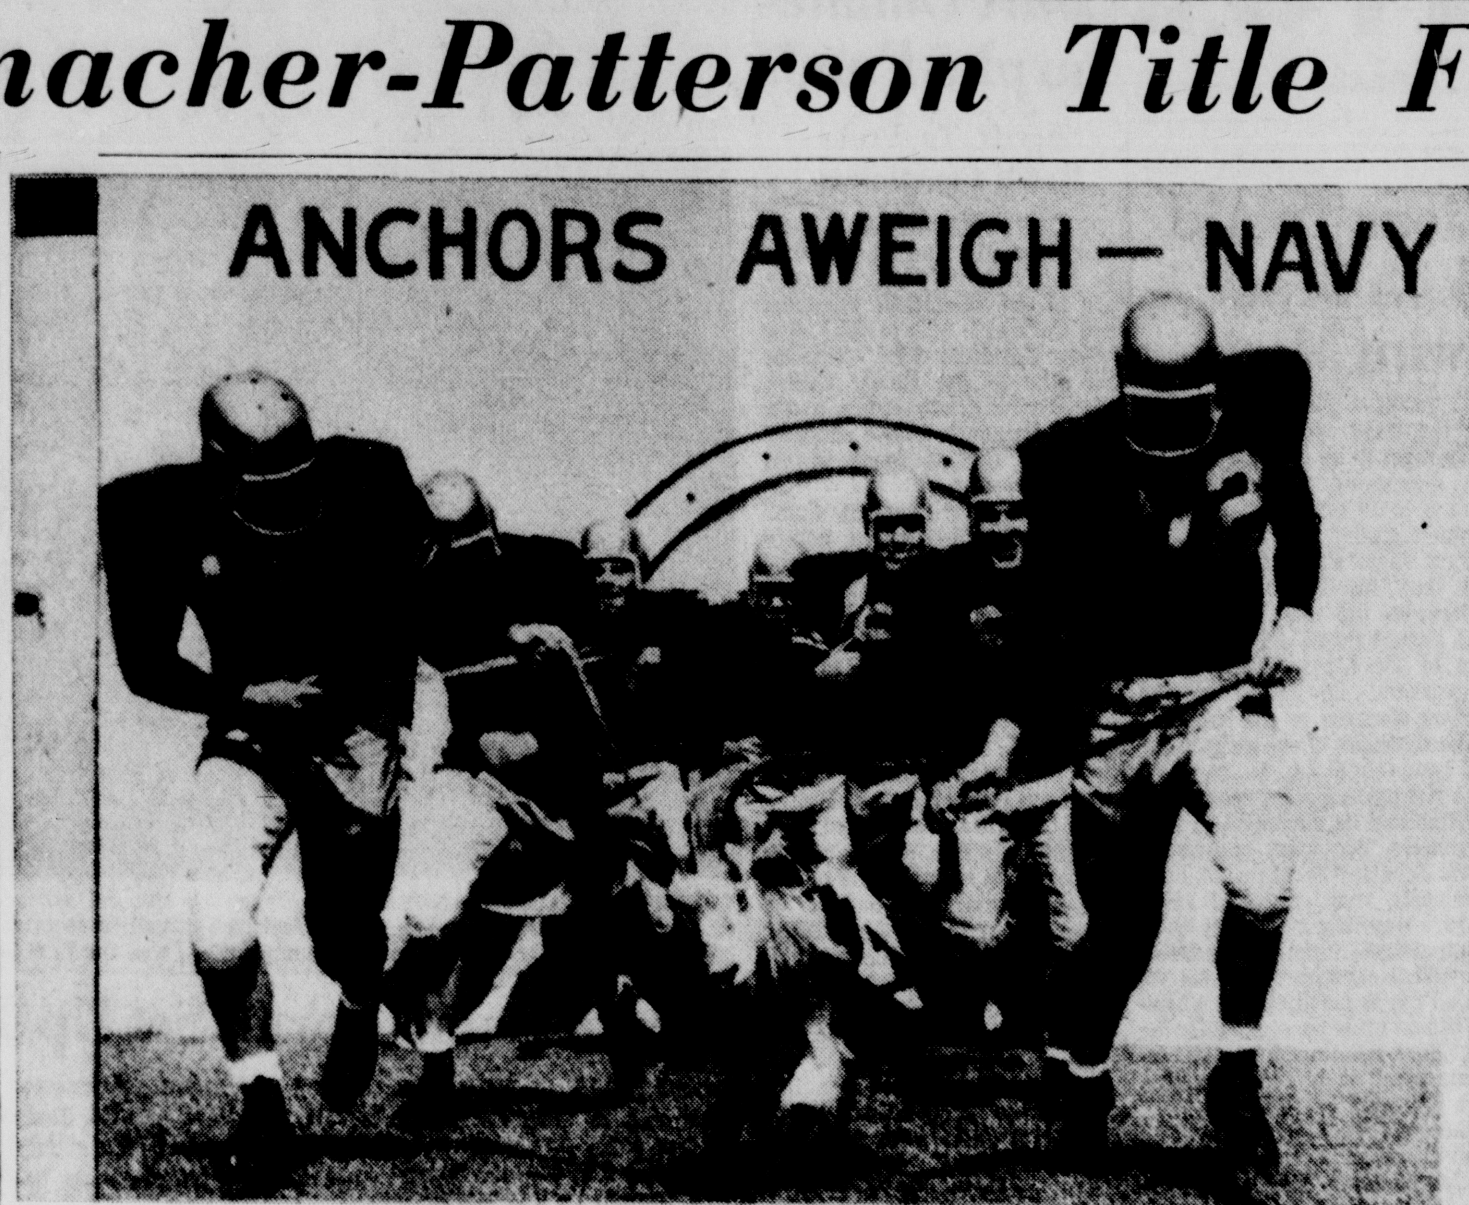

He lost to Floyd via decision in eight rounds in the present champion's debut in New York's Madison Square Garden. Now, however, he's in the challenger's camp and will be in his corner tonight.

Gannon, 30 and retired from the light heavyweight ring wars, was one of those impressed with Rademacher's sincerity and desire to battle for the title in his first pro heavyweight fight.

He helped promote the extraordinary proposal until it became perhaps the most unusual and ridiculed match of the century.

"Patterson's speed will take its toll, but Pete's speed and punching power will take its toll sooner," says Joe. "Floyd's punches sting, Pete's penetrate."

He based that observation on his eight rounds against Patterson more than two years ago and 40 rounds of sparring against Rademacher.

Player Of Day Cincy Figures Newk's Price At $300,000

By International News Service

Don Newcombe isn't going to come close to winning as many honors in 1957 as he did in 1956, but Cincinnati still figures he's worth $300,000.

The big righthander of the Brooklyn Dodgers won 27 and lost 7 last season and was rewarded by being named the Most Valuable Player in the National League and the first recipient of the Cy Young award.

The 31-year-old pitcher experienced some arm trouble in the World Series against the New York Yankees. His complaints were borne out this season when he was knocked out of the box with great frequency.

But he flashed his old-time form yesterday against Cincinnati, yielding only five hits and striking out six Redlegs. The fine hurling produced an 8-to-0 Brooklyn victory, the first for Newcombe since he beat Cincinnati July 12. He now is 10-and-10.

That made Newk's lifetime record against Cincinnati a sparkling 21-and-6.

Gabe Paul, the Cincinnati general manager, offered $300,000 for Newcombe in spring training. He was present at yesterday's game at Ebbets Field and when it was over, Paul repeated: "I'll take him. The offer still goes."

Stallions Defeat Colts In Opener

Doug Page fanned 13 and scored the winning run yesterday at Penn Avenue Field as Stallions won the opening game in the best-of-three finals of the Pony Baseball League with a 5-4 decision over Colts in eight innings.

Hugh Reed of the first-half champs struck out a dozen and surrendered only four hits to the six by his teammates off Page. But the first-half champions' hurler singled and crossed over with what proved to be the winning run on a three-base error in the eighth.

Colts came back to score once in the bottom of the frame but fell a run short of deadlocking the contest. The second game is slated Saturday, 5 p. m., at Stutcher Field. The third, if needed, will be decided after Saturday's contest.

Gary Shook homered for the winners with a mate aboard to account for two in the fourth after Colts had moved ahead, 2-1, with a pair in the third. Colts tied the game in the bottom of the fourth with a tally and no more scoring occurred until the eighth.

Wayne Shook had two of the winners' four safeties while Flynn banged a triple and Davis a two-bagger for Colts.

Middies Open Grid Drills; Erdelatz Given New Contract

ANNAPOLIS — (AP) — The Naval Academy athletic command has changed hands. But Saturday football opponents won't detect any difference.

Civilians still will plot any damage. And all hands agree—cautiously in keeping with military standards—it will be great.

Orioles and Elks tangle today at Frostburg in the semi-finals of the Frostburg Little League playoffs with the winner meeting Lions in the finals. Lions got to the title round yesterday by blanking Eagles, 2-0. Orioles eliminated Rotary in the first round, 16-2.

Jim Wilson hurled a one-hitter and fanned nine for Lions yesterday. "Red" Ziler had a pair of doubles and John Blank a pair of one-baggers for the winners.

A double by Bobby Clark in the fifth was the only safety off Wilson. Verl Perkins, losing hurler, fanned seven.

Trio Seeking Title Chance With Brown

CHICAGO — Joe Brown, who has proven to be anything but invincible, today finds at least three fighters scrambling for a showdown for his lightweight championship.

Having one of the strongest cases is Joey Lopes of Sacramento, Calif., who weaved, bobbed and sprayed shots at Brown last night in Chicago stadium to earn a 10-round draw in a nationally televised and broadcast over-weight match.

Lopes, 10th ranking contender, boasted afterward that "I will beat him if he gives me a crack at the championship."

A rematch probably would catch on well in Brown's native New Orleans, where he won the crown from Wallace (Bud) Smith, or in San Francisco.

But two others are also hot after a championship bout. They are Cisco Andrade of Los Angeles, currently ranked No. 4 and considered by Brown as probably the best of the contenders, and No. 1 Kenny Lane of Muskegon, Mich.

Sports Shoppers, Peskin's Clash; Post's In Finals

Sports Shoppe and Peskin's Shoemen will clash this evening, starting at 6 o'clock, at Fort Hill Field in the final game of a best-of-three series in the Rec Softball League playoffs. Winner of the game will advance to the finals against Post Playground.

The Shoemen won the first game of the series by a 6-3 count, but Sports Shoppe came back Tuesday to square the set by taking an 8-3 decision.

Post became a finalist yesterday with a pair of triumphs over South End Merchants. The Playgrounds had won Tuesday, 20-3, and then applied the clincher for the sweep yesterday with a 10-3 triumph.

Ronnie Lewis collected three hits, including a homer in yesterday's contest. Stickley also had three hits for the victors. Gene Hess, who won the decision over Paul Fisher on Tuesday, repeated in yesterday's game.

Hermans Cop Opener, 6-4, On Errors, Timely Hitting

Taking advantage of eight enemy errors and mixing it with some timely stick work, the Hermans took a step toward the playoff championship of the City Softball League by turning back Knights of Columbus, 6 to 4, yesterday evening at Stutcher Field in the first game of the best-of-three final series.

Finding themselves with their backs to the wall as the result of a two-run Casey uprising in the last of the sixth, the Hermans of Jimmy Allen exploded with four tallies in the last inning to gain the decision. The Hermans found George Harris for only four singles through the six frames, the fourth was the fielding high-bat picked up four more during their big rally.

Harris, who sent over the tie-breaking run with a single through the middle, looked like a good bet to gain the nod over Hayden Phillips with the bottom of the batting order facing him in the top of the seventh. However, the Casey chucker dug his own hole by throwing away a taper by Frank Scarpelli, leadoff batter, for a two-base error.

That was all the Hermans needed for an inspiration. Marsh Yankelevitz followed with his second single of the day, sending Scarpelli to third and going to second himself on the throw-in. Walt Basilio, hitless in three previous appearances, then lashed a two-run single over second and the Hermans were "home." Bobby Goss sacrificed, but Norm Sell's fourth error of the game permitted Paul Lease, running for Basilio, to move to third from where he scored the third run on Lynn's sacrifice fly.

Back-to-back triples by Lease and Rodney Breedlove, the latter's a wicked shot down the right-field line, concluded the Hermans' scoring.

Knights Come Back

The Knights fought back in the last of the seventh when Tom Mullaney beat out his second infield hit of the game and went to second on Scarpelli's throwing error. Manager Mickey Clark's infield out moved him along a notch and Rickey Harris plated him with a sacrifice fly. Denny Shuck kept the Casey's hopes alive by drawing a walk but catcher Yankelevitz picked up Jerry Farrell's toppler and fired him out to end the game.

The contest was delayed for ten minutes following Mullaney's single by a shower, but a bigger downpour held off until the final out.

The Hermans started the day's scoring with a pair of runs in the third on three singles and an assist from the Knights in the form of three errors. A great throw from left by Bobby Christ cutting down Scarpelli at the plate prevented another tally.

Clark Turns 'Gief'

The Casey's got one run back in the fourth on some daring base running by Clark. Mickey beat out an infield hit, stole second and third and raced home when one of Phillips' pitches hit the plate and bounded away for a wild pitch.

The score stayed that way until the sixth. With one out Harris singled to right and took second on Goss' bobbie. Shuck sent him across with a one-bagger to right and swiped second from where he tallied on Harris' hit.

'Farm-Team' A's Turning On Yankee Benefactors

Take Second In Row Over Bombers As Held Is Hero

By FRED DE LUCA

NEW YORK—(INS)—Take it from Casey Stengel, the Kansas City A's weren't "skunked" in their June 15th deal with the Yankees.

Between losing 1-0 to the A's Tuesday and dropping a 6-3 decision to the "farm team" last night, Casey knows whereof he speaks.

Commenting on the June trade that brought Harry Simpson to New York for Ralph Terry, Woody Held and Billy Martin among others, Stengel said:

Get Young Players

"I guess you'd have to say they got the better of the deal because of the age of the players. They picked up able young men and can build with them."

Terry pitched the Tuesday shutout and Held scored the only run of the game. Held starred again last night but this time the pitcher was little Jack Urban, another former Yankee farmhand.

Urban held the Yanks to eight hits until the ninth when he needed help from Virgil Trucks. One of the hits was a Yankee homer by Simpson. But Urban's record now is 3-and-2.

Held played a key part in the game. The centerfielder singled home two runs as the A's routed Johnny Kuchs in the first inning. Held also robbed the Yanks of two extra-base hits with great catches on an eighth-inning drive by Moose Skowron and a ninth-inning belt by Hak Bauer.

As Casey said, "Held was all over the place grabbing balls." Two straight K.C. wins also accomplished two other things. It gave the A's their first series over the Yanks since K.C. went big league and it cut New York's league lead to six games.

Ted, Mantle 'Collared'

The Chicago White Sox reduced the Yankee gap by thumping Washington, 12 to 6, as Gerry Staley won his fifth without a loss. Boston nipped Cleveland, 3 to 1, with Ted Williams going hitless in two at-bats. His average slipped to .385 but Mantle was 0-for-3 and fell to .378. Outfielders Joe Durham and Al Pillar hit three-run homers as Baltimore crushed Detroit, 9 to 3.

There were just two day games in the National League. The New York Giants combined two big innings with bonus baby Mike McCormick's relief pitching to rout St. Louis, 13 to 6. Brooklyn and Don Newcombe blanked Cincinnati, 8 to 0, as the Redlegs lost their ninth in a row. The day's action increased idle Milwaukee's league lead to 6½ games.

McCormick came in for the Giants in the first inning after Wally Moon and Stan Musial hit homers off Stu Miller. The 18-year-old southpaw went on to win his third without a defeat as the Giants scored six in the third off Lindy McDaniel and added four more in the fifth. Willie Mays and Hank Sauer homered for the Giants - and Valmy Thomas belted a bases-loaded triple. McCormick also knocked in three runs.

New Evens Record

Newcombs scattered five hits in winning his tenth game to even off his record. The Dodgers connected for 11 hits off Redleg starter Hal Jeffcoat and his successors. Gino Cimoli hit a three-run homer as the Redlegs fell into a fourth-place tie with Philadelphia.

The White Sox broke open their game with Washington by scoring seven times in the third inning off Russ Kemmerer. Bob Usher, Roy Sievers and Art Schult all homered for Washington. Sievers' blast was his 32d, tying him with Mantle for the league lead. It also lifted his runs-batted-in total to 87 one more than Mantle.

Willard Nixon won for Boston as Jim Piersall hit a two-run homer off Mike Garcia. The Indians managed seven hits.

The Baltimore homers by Durham and Pillar carried Ray Moore to the victory and gave Billy Hoelt the defeat. The Tiger runs all came on relief pitcher Lou Sleater's three-run homer - his third roundtripper of the season.

Two Ex-Champs Still In Tourney

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP)—It's quarter-final day at the National Women's Golf amateur today with two ex-champions still in the running, thanks to a bad case of tournamentitis and a long putt.

Defending champion Merlene Stewart Streit made the round of eight when Polly Riley, a Fort Worth, Texas winner of many a major tournament, got the whammies on the 19th hole yesterday and blew two shots in a row.

And Barbara Romack Porter, the 1954 champion playing at home on the Del Paso Country Club course, had to go 20 holes before squeezing out Clifford Ann Creed, an 18-year-old fighter from Opelousas, La. who hardly knows what it is to be behind.

UMPIRE

By BEANS REARDON
Written for NEA Service

Question: The batter lifts a pop foul behind the plate. The catcher bumps into the plate umpire and falls to the ground. He doesn't make the catch. What is the ruling?—Mike Shannon.

Answer: It is just a strike. Umpires regard staying out of the players' way important, but sometimes it's unavoidable.

Q. Is it true that if a line drive strikes the pitcher's rubber and rebounds on the fly into foul territory it is a foul ball?—Al Snyder.

A. Yes.

Q. A batted ball hits the plate and bounces high in the air. The umpire calls, "Foul ball!" Hearing the call, the batter does not run nor does anyone attempt to field the ball, which stops about 10 feet in front of the pitcher's rubber. What now?—Clark Grover.

A. Hitting the plate did not make this a foul ball. But there is nothing the umpire can do but stick to his decision since the call stopped play.

Barton Team, Midland Enter League Finals

The best-of-five title series for the championship of the Twilight Baseball League will open Monday with pennant-winning Barton and Midland making the rounds by notching triumphs yesterday.

Barton eliminated Zihlman, 8-6, at Midland while fourth-place Midland knocked out runnerup Lonaconing in a baffest, 14-11, at Barton. Both series had gone the limit with Barton and Lonaconing taking the openers and then losing the second with 'Coney also taking it on the chin yesterday.

Paul "Bubbles" Thompson was the winning pitcher for Midland and Jerry Lancaster, who started on the hill for Lonaconing was the loser.

Dale Williams had a perfect day at bat for Midland, collecting four hits while Tom Dunn and Artie Winner had three each and Thompson two. One of Winner's blows was a homer. Curtis Johnson smacked a homer and single for Lonaconing. Rodney Johnson, Jack Brodie and "Champ" Spiker also had two hits.

Barton racked up 13 hits in whipping Zihlman in the final game of the series. Tommy Warnick blasted a pair of triples, Johnny Johnson homered and "Buck" Smith and Ed Warnick rapped two-baggers for the winners. A one-handed running catch by Jim Wilson of Barton in left-center was the fielding highlight. Bob Keister banged a double and two singles and Downtown garnered a pair of bingles for Zihlman.

Frederick Needs Win Or Will Be Out Legion Play

PARKERSBURG, W. Va. (AP)—Whitesville, W. Va. after downing Frederick, Md. 8-4, takes on Washington's Gas Light Post 44 tonight in the Region I American Legion baseball tournament.

Washington capitalized on two errors by Wilmington, Del. Durney Post in the 10th inning in yesterday's playoffs to squeeze over an unearned run and gain a 6-5 win.

In the first game of the double-elimination playoffs tonight, Frederick meets Wilmington. The loser will be out of the tourney, having lost two games.

Whitesville failed to get a hit until the seventh inning against Frederick but made good use of that frame to forge ahead to the winning margin. The West Virginia champs scored three runs in the seventh on two walks, a double by Harold White, a single by Bob Stover, a steal and a wild pitch to go ahead, 7-4.

Until the outbreak, Frederick's Dick Smith had a no-hitter, although he was plagued throughout with control trouble from the fifth inning on.

Washington won its overtime game when Wilmington's shortstop Bob Grenall made an error on leadoff man Jim Schwab's hard ground ball. Schwab raced all the way home when Larry Nolan's hit went through leftfielder Tom Hall.

Pat Green gave up 7 hits, fanned 11 and walked 3 while pitching Washington to the win, although five errors were committed behind him.

Third-Place Battle Tops 'Chair Finish

Outdoor Club, pennant winner, and Elks, runnerup, hold the key to the chances of both Veterans of Foreign Wars and Pittsburgh Plate Glass for third place in the Rocking Chair Softball League playoffs as the circuit winds up its schedule this evening.

The Glassers and Vets, both losing yesterday, have been waging a duel most of the year for the third slot with Vets holding a one-game edge going into today's clash with Elks at Post Field. The Glassers will go up against Outdoor Club at Stitzer Field in their big contest.

Rivals Both Lose

The Vets were handed a 16-2 drubbing by the ODC swatters yesterday at Allegheny while Pittsburgh was edged, 17-11, in a slugfest at Celanese Field by the Silkers. The triumph was the 13th in a row for Outdoor Club and the 24th in 25 starts.

Elks and the Vets have tangled three times with the BPOers holding a 2-1 edge in the series. ODC also holds a 2-1 margin over Pittsburgh Plate in their rivalry. A win for Vets (15-12) gives them the third position in the playoffs no matter what PPG (14-13) does. A loss for VFW and victory for the Glassers knots them for the slot.

Slam 20 Safeties

Racking up a total of 20 hits in a five-inning game, Outdoor Club reeled off its 13th consecutive victory, clobbering the Vets.

Vern Penner and Sam Brady collected a double and two singles each. George "Goldie" Evans had three bingles. Mil Dean obtained a home run and single and "Bub" Porter hit for the circuit. Charley Day went the route for the Outdoor Club and turned back the Vets with four hits, including a two-bagger and single by "Chug" Aman.

Celanese lowered the curtain on its 1957 campaign by trimming Pittsburgh Plate. A nine-run rally in the sixth settled the issue.

Kienhofer Wins Fourth

Frank Kienhofer made his record 4-2 for the season by winning for the Silken although nicked for 15 hits. The winners connected for 16 safeties including three each by Ozzie Nelson and Blacka.

Nelson hit homers in successive turns at bat in the fifth and sixth innings while Blacka also pounded a round-tripper. Briskey, Russ Minnick and Beck shared nine of the Glassmen's hits.

Bob Kirk Picked Basketball Coach For Laurel High

Bob Kirk, who holds the WMI Basketball League and Frostburg State Teachers College game scoring records, has been appointed varsity hoop coach at Laurel Senior High School of Prince Georges County. Kirk will also teach junior-senior mathematics.

The former Barton High and Bobcats' all-round athlete was graduated from Frostburg State this spring. He earned 11 letters at the Mountain City college in soccer, basketball and baseball.

Bob is a 1953 graduate of Barton High where he played basketball, soccer and baseball for coach Paul L. Footen and John Thomas, now coach at Mt. Savage. While at Barton he played on three state championship basketball teams. He was a regular on the team that tied Fort Hill for the WMI crown in 1951 and made the WMI all-star team two years later.

In 1953, Kirk established a scoring record for the WMI League when he tallied 235 points in 10 games for an average of 23.5, breaking the previous mark of 22.5 set by Ernest Schramm, a former Bartonite.

While at State Teachers College, Kirk hung up two records, one for most points scored in one year for basketball and the most points scored in four years. He was president of the Men's Athletic Council for three years.

In soccer, Kirk was on the WMI League all-star team for two years and was named on the All-Southern soccer team while at State Teachers College. He also won the outstanding senior award for soccer.

Red Sox Keep Playoff Title, Beat Senators

For the third time in the eight-year history of the Dapper Dan Little League the Red Sox wound up as playoff champion. Manager Jim Wilson's club whipped Senators, 8-2, last night at Penn Avenue Field to sweep the series from the Abrams Division kings.

By winning the Sox also became the second team in history to retain the playoff crown. Oddly enough, the only other club to perform the feat was the Senators who bagged titles in 1934-35. This is the second team Wilson has guided to the toga while the 1952 Sox were loop champs when handed by Bob Collins. Al Manges piloted the Senators this summer.

The Sox, who finished with an eight-game win streak, had taken the Senators across, 4-3, in seven innings Tuesday evening. Both teams had whipped the Dapper Division champion Yankees in the double-elimination series. The Red Sox finished with a 14-4 record while the Senators had a 12-4 showing.

Richard Robinson who made his first start for the Sox got credit for the win. He was relieved by Harold Hardinger in the fifth and the latter fanned five in the last two frames.

Harold Hardinger blasted a homer and double. Harold Hardinger rapped a triple and Craig Sisk had a two-bagger for the winners. Mike Harvey connected for a home run and two-bagger for the Senators. John Hardinger and Jim Morrison were manager Wilson's assistants.

'Playhouse 90' Tops Rating; Steve Allen Out Of First Place

By JACK O'BRIAN

NEW YORK — (INS) — Is Dody Goodman for real? . . . Playhouse 90, soggy old rerun films and all, topped the July ARB national Nielsen list. . . . Ed Sullivan was 6th, no Steve Allen. . . . They said all babies looked like Winston Churchill but we say Alfred Hitchcock. . . . We say Lee Meriwether is the best weather girl of all. . . . Julius La Rosa signed for an upcoming Kraft Theatre, without script, or date. . . . Tina Robin on the Vic Damone show had the wallop and whizz of the best old-time vaude veterans and she's only 19. . . . Didn't do right by Charlie Shavers while we watched; Shavers' "Stardust" noodling is the sweetest hip syrup on the far side of Louis Armstrong. . . . TV columnist Sid Shalit leaves the daily grind (Sid's the lad who said Steve Allen is "a man of many small talents"). . . . John Crosby quits TV-radio to concentrate on his CBS-TV show. . . . Only a few of us left. . . . Kraft has a confidential-type play a week from next Wednesday, starring June Haver. "Meet The Press" picks up a fine full-network NBC sponsor in time vaude veterans and she's only 19. . . . Didn't do right by participating tab-pickers-up, such as no score), Richardi, Danny Dillon, Roy Sievers. . . . Why? Oh, Smiley discovered them all. Revlon may be mad, but NBC announced Hal March's new panel show, "What's It For," definitely will start Oct. 12. That's a Saturday night. . . . Joan Caulfield's personally-owned (with hubby Frank Ross) NBC series "Sally," starts Sept. 15, a week earlier than expected, opposite Jack Benny. . . . Shirley Harmer, ex-Garroway singer, joins George Gobel's NBC premier. She's been capering in Canada for three years since Dave's show. . . . Bride & Groom, pretty awful with one maudlin wedding at a time, will try a double-feature Aug. 30. . . . How do you get a good role in a TV play? Write it yourself, as Maury Hill did for the Sept. 5 Lux Theatre's "Old Witch, Old Witch," in which Margalo Gilmore plays the dubious title role. . . . Sarah Vaughan's virus will be okay and she'll sing the same song (which mentions Arthur Murray) on next Monday's Kathryncast. . . . Dave Garroway's pert right-hand, Mary Kelly, was sent to Vermont to shoot films of the giant Christmas tree which will be cut later and shipped to Rockefeller Plaza's Radio City. . . . NBC's thinking of making "21" a radio show, too, in a simulcast.

NOTICE

Pursuant to the provisions of Section 127 of the Charter of the City of Cumberland, Maryland, (1950 Edition), notice is hereby given that the Mayor and City Council of Cumberland did, in regular session Monday, August 12, 1957, approve the reports of Commissioners for the closing of portions of the following streets and unnamed alleys:

READ TERRACE - from Washington Street to North Terrace.

UNNAMED ALLEY - running 100 feet distant and parallel with Sanford Street and extending eastwardly from Gleason Street to an unnamed alley.

3. SOMMERVILLE AVENUE - from Fourth Street to Quebec Avenue in South View Addition.

Said Commissioners were appointed by virtue of Ordinances Nos. 2052, 2062 and 2064 respectively, for the purpose of assessing any damages or benefits incurred by or accruing to any owners of property affected by the closing of said portions of streets or unnamed alleys after meeting on the premises and hearing those persons who would be affected by the closing of said streets and unnamed alleys. The Commissioners present the following:

1. After careful examination of the street or terrace or portions of streets and terraces to be closed, your commissioners feel that none of the adjacent property owners are affected thereby, and that no damages will be caused by the closing of a portion of said Read Terrace to the owners or possessors of any property located along said Read Terrace, nor will any material benefits be derived therefrom by the abutting property owners or possessors of property along said Read Terrace.

2. Since the closing of said portion of said Read Terrace hereinbefore recited has been accomplished at the request of Miss Marie K. Holzhu, the undersigned are of the opinion that the cost incident to the closing of the said portion of Read Terrace should be charged by the Mayor and City Council of Cumberland to the said Miss Marie K. Holzhu and we assess the cost of the same to the petitioner, it being our determination that the payment of said costs offsets any special benefits which the said Marie K. Holzhu may derive from said closing.

3. That there are no damages to any abutting property owners resulting from the closing of said alley and that the incident thereof should be charged by the Mayor and City Council of Cumberland to the said Miss Marie K. Holzhu and we assess the cost of the same to the petitioner, it being our determination that the payment of said costs offsets any special benefits which the said Charles W. Valentine may derive from the said closing.

4. That there are no damages to any abutting property owners resulting from the closing of the aforementioned portion of Somerville Avenue and that the property owners should be benefited from the closing of said portion of Somerville Avenue is the Chesapeake & Potomac Company of Maryland, and said benefit be derived by said company will depend upon the use by said company of said portion of Somerville Avenue, which it may acquire as the abutting property owner by the closing of said portion of Somerville Avenue. Under the circumstances, the Commissioners feel that said company should pay the expenses and costs incident to the closing of said portion of said avenue and that the payment of said costs should offset the immediate benefit received by said company as a result of the closing, and that no other benefits should be assessed.

Any person, persons, firm or corporation feeling aggrieved by the decisions of the Commissioners may appeal therefrom within thirty (30) days after August 12 by filing written notice of such appeal with the Clerk of the City of Cumberland, Maryland, who will transmit same to the Circuit Court for Allegany County to be docketed for jury trial.

They'll Do It Every Time

BUT LET HIS LITTLE NEPHEW ELMO TAKE A SECOND BOTTLE OF BURPA-BURPA-NOW LISTEN TO LUSHWELL...

OUR BOARDING HOUSE with MAOR HOOPLE

My old friend, Joe Cohen of Wooster, Ohio, former president of the ACBL, who sat West, passed.

North looked over his collection of cheese. He counted his 12 points a few times and eventually raised his partner to five diamonds. He did have fine diamond support and there can be no great criticism of his bid, although I do feel that discretion would have been the better part of valor and that a pass was in order.

East passed. He had done his full duty when he bid three spades. When it came around to Joe he doubled. He knew that his four diamonds would bother declarer and his queen of spades was a very pleasing lead.

Joe opened the queen of spades. South won with the ace and laid down the king of diamonds. East dropped the ten of clubs.

South's next play was the three of hearts. Joe hopped right up with his ace and led the eight of clubs to his partner.

There was a good reason for this lead instead of the conventional fourth best. Joe did not want his partner to play him for any high club.

East won the ace of clubs and cashed a high spade. Another spade was led and ruffed by South's queen. He picked up trumps and spread his hand for down one.

HERE is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

Elderly Woman Hits Bear With Shotgun

CLOUDCROFT, N. M. (P)—A marauding bear has discovered that a little 84-year-old woman means business. When the animal came to the home of Mrs. Cyril Colton to renew raids on the canned goods, Mrs. Colton was ready. The bear limped off to the woods with a load of shotgun pellets in its hide.

"If that danged gun hadn't been so hard to handle," the little old lady said, "I'd-a had me a bear-skin rug."

Peach Size Reduced By Dry Weather

WINCHESTER, Va. (AP) — The Virginia peach harvest moved northward this week with the size of the fruit reduced due to dry weather. Demand was reported good.

The Federal-State Market News Service at Martinsburg, W. Va. reported that rains in Southern Virginia early this week came too late to be of any help for peach sizing.

Harvest of Elbertas, the main crop, is just getting under way in this area. Some cool nights slowed the opening a little.

The harvest in Southern Virginia is nearly completed, the market news service said.

No General Pay Increase Being Sought

BALTIMORE (AP) — The Maryland Telephone Union said today it was not asking for a general wage boost in its new contract talks with the Chesapeake and Potomac Co. of Maryland.

"The union is not making a demand for a general wage increase in an effort to do its part in halting the present inflationary spiral, as President Eisenhower requested of both industry and labor," the union said.

"The union demands are of a minor nature, consisting of some fringe benefits, generally prevalent in other industries, and quite adjustable adjustments of wages throughout the state."

The independent union and the company opened talks yesterday. The present contract expires at midnight on Oct. 13.

Baltimore Milk Rate Takes Jump

BALTIMORE (AP) — The price of milk to Baltimore dairies goes up 40 cents a hundredweight on Oct. 1, the Maryland Cooperative Milk Producers Assn. announced today. The cooperative has 2,000 member-farmers who sell milk wholesale to the Baltimore market. Another 500 non-members also bring their milk here, and probably will raise their price accordingly.

The cooperative said it was forced to raise the price from $5.50 to $5.90 a hundredweight because the long drought had increased feed costs to the farmers. The price of grade A milk here now is generally 25 cents a quart. The wholesale price rise is certain to affect the retail price, probably a penny a quart.

World's first mile of concrete road was laid on Woodward Avenue, Detroit, Michigan, in 1908.

The keynote speech of the assembly was given yesterday by Nathan H. Knorr of Brooklyn, N. Y., president of the Watch Tower Society. He offered the huge gathering hope that they "have every right to expect to survive the old world's end during this generation and live... to enjoy earthly paradise."

Police Piece Together Plan Of Robbery

FERNDALE, Md. (AP) — Thieves who took more than $2,700 from a drugstore in northern Anne Arundel County really worked for it.

Police today had pieced together this picture of the Tuesday night robbery at the store on Ritchie highway in Brooklyn Park.

The burglars scaled an eight foot wall to a window ledge, climbed four feet from the ledge to a roof, went up another five feet to a second window ledge and then climbed another seven feet to a second roof.

From the roof they jumped five feet to the drugstore roof, opened a skylight and lowered themselves 18 feet into the store. They forced open a safe and removed $700 in cash and $1,666 in negotiable checks and money orders.

They broke into two pinball machines and took an estimated $350 from them, then forced open a juke box with a claw hammer and removed $15.

Before leaving they replaced the claw hammer in its display case.
